House Passes Surtax Bill; Senate Sees 90-Day Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Acting after a last-minute plea from President Nixon and under strong pressure from leaders of both parties, the House has narrowly passed a bill to extend the income surtax.

The bill approved Monday 210-205, now goes to the Senate where leaders predict consideration may take three months.

Technically the 10 per cent surtax expired at midnight, only hours after the House action.

However, Congress already has voted to continue the withholding rates which include the surcharge through July, and the tax itself can later be extended retroactive to July 1. Senate leaders have said a further 60 day extension of the withholding rates probably will be sought.

Nixon wants the surtax to continue at a 10 per cent rate through December and then at 5 per cent until the end of next June.

Opposition to the bill has come mainly from congressmen who fear any chance for far reaching tax reforms will be lost if not included in the surtax extension measure.

Just before the close of House debate Monday night, Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford read a letter from the President aimed at swaying such opponents.

"I want to remove any vestige of doubt as to the commitment of this administration to prompt and meaningful tax reform," Nixon said.

Earlier in the day Nixon met at the White House with 28 Republican congressmen, most of them opponents of the surtax extension. All but 10 of these ended up voting for the bill.

In all, Nixon got 154 House Republican votes while 26 GOP members opposed it.

House Democratic leaders gave strong support to the extension, but only 56 votes for the bill came from that side of the aisle. Opposed were 179 Democrats.

Joining Nixon and Ford in the heavy last-minute pressure for passage were House Speaker John W. McCormack, Democratic Leader Carl Albert, Ways and Means Chairman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., and Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., who handled the measure. Boggs said "something approaching panic" could occur if inflation is not curbed soon.

Mills, in his first floor appearance after a recent illness, promised his committee would bring forth a more comprehensive tax reform bill later in the summer.

"The facts are that we're just beginning to get hold of this inflation," said Mills. "We're just beginning to get hold of the inflationary psychology here at home. What I'm afraid we'll do if we defeat this legislation today, we will lose all that we have gained."

Bomb Jars Royal Train As Prince Awaits Investiture

CAERNARVON, Wales (AP) — Charles of Windsor, the next king of Britain, was installed as Prince of Wales today amid the rousing cheers of thousands—and the echoes of bombs apparently set off by Welsh extremists demanding independence.

Queen Elizabeth II placed the coronet on her 20-year-old son's head in the court of ancient Caernarvon Castle, handed him the mantle, ring, gold rod, sword and letters patent of his noble rights.

Charles in turn swore allegiance to the crown he some day will wear and pledged fealty, understanding and support for the principality of Wales.

The medieval pageantry of heralds, knights, banners, trumpets, carriages, bards and Druids, choristers, officialdom and foreign guests was carried out in warm sunshine and gentle breeze.

The precision of the lavish pomp and circumstances carried on despite a series of extremist tries to disrupt the ceremony. Two men died by their efforts.

The royal train stopped three times on its way from London overnight because of bomb scares on railway trestles.

One bomb exploded on the tracks near Caernarvon in front of the spot where the royal train had stopped. This shook the train and tore up a section of the track. Two youths were arrested.

Tricia Nixon, daughter of the President, was aboard a train which passed over the track before the bomb went off.

One young man threw an egg at the queen's carriage on her way to the castle. He was nearly lynched by the mob but was rescued by police. They were out in such force that any guess from 3,000 to 5,000 seemed to be close.

Earlier two Welshmen carrying explosives some distance from Caernarvon, but clearly for dangerous purposes, were caught in their own trap. They blew themselves up by accident.

Despite all this the royal family—the queen, the Duke of Edinburgh and above all Prince Charles himself—went through the tedious but highly impressive ceremony with aplomb, smiles, waves of the hand and traditional calm for which they all have been trained.

The town of 9,200 swelled to a quarter of a million for the first such ceremony in 58 years demonstrated with rousing cheers. Interspersed boos were thrown out.

Charles appeared for the solemn ceremony, which was watched by television viewers around the world, after spending the night in a secret, heavily guarded location somewhere in northwest Wales.

Storms Mark Start Of July In Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms dumped locally heavy rain into portions of Kansas, Missouri and Illinois today, but July began on a fair and pleasant note in most other sections of the country.

Almost 2½ inches of rain poured onto Burlington, in eastern Kansas, during the night. Nearly 2-1/2 inches soaked the southern Illinois city of Marion.

A tornado was sighted near Mount Vernon, also in southern Illinois, but there were no indications of damage or injuries.

The turbulence generally marked the boundary between cooler and dry weather ranging from the Pacific Northwest to the western Great Lakes region and heat and humidity steaming the Southeast and most of the Eastern Seaboard.

Heavy thunderstorms laced portions of the eastern Great Lakes Monday afternoon and went westward and central New York State with wind gusts up to 66 miles an hour. Some houses were unroofed, and trees and utility lines were torn down in several areas.

Seven persons were hospitalized in Syracuse, N.Y., from storm-related injuries. One man was killed when a tree limb crashed through his car windshield at Baldwinsville, N.Y.

Rainy or otherwise unpleasant weather was scarce outside the storm belt, and clear skies were widespread.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 39 at Duluth, Minn., to 96 at Blythe, Calif.

Illinois Gets Income Tax

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie planned to sign today a state income tax bill that will become effective Aug. 1 if upheld by the Illinois Supreme Court.

On that date, employers are to begin withholding 2½ per cent from individuals' pay checks. Corporations will pay at a 4 per cent rate.

The House completed approval of the bill Monday night by a vote of 91 to 73 after three hours of debate in which Democrats charged that the Republican governor would be able to build a huge surplus in the state treasury.

Unless the levy is voided in court, Illinois will become the 38th state with an income tax.

In 1931, the legislature enacted a state income tax but it was thrown out a year later by the courts, primarily because the tax was graduated.

High temperatures and accompanying humidity of the past five days were driven from the area when strong and momentarily cooling winds, severe lightning and rain struck around 10 p.m. last night.

A half-inch of rain lashed the area in a short period of time, making the total accumulation of rainfall for the month of June, 4.54 inches, .37 inch above normal.

The weatherman has forecast at least two days of cooler temperatures, welcome relief from the mercury readings of the last five days, which have averaged 90.6 humid degrees.

A HIGH temperature reading of 80 to 83 degrees is predicted for the next 48-hour period. A noticeable contrast to one year ago, July 1, 1968 thermometer readings ranged from a high, hot, humid 92 to an overnight of 62.

No additional rain has been forecast for the next 48 hour period.

Control Board Dispute Halts Budget Passage

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Senate today began picking up the pieces of the legislative process that broke down at 3:15 a. m. — leaving Ohio theoretically without funds.

The breakdown occurred when Gov. James A. Rhodes balked at the padding of the State Controlling Board by the legislature.

The Senate Finance Committee amended the $4.1 billion budget bill to boost the five-man Controlling Board to seven members—adding four legislators to the two already there.

Rhodes offered a compromise three - member board which would include his representative and the chairmen of the finance committees of the House and Senate.

The House bought the proposal on a 51-31 vote. Senate Republicans refused it and Majority Leader Ted Gray R-3 Piqua was unable to muster enough administration votes to pass it.

As a result, the state began the fiscal year last midnight without operating funds.

All unspent appropriations lapse at the end of a fiscal biennium. There is no authority for spending, although the state is not broke because tax money remains in the treasury.

The Senate voted 26-5 to pass the appropriations bill with its amendments.

The budget includes operating funds for all state departments except education through June 30, 1971.

The Senate version of the bill would take the board away from the control of the administration and put it under the legislature.

It would also put six legislators — including two minority party members — and the finance director on the board. The present five-member board includes the finance director, the attorney general, state auditor and two legislators.

The Senate version also gives the board the power to transfer a department's unused appropriation to other departments.

The governor, who flew back from the Midwest Governor's Conference in Wichita, Kan., Monday to sign the bill is opposed to putting the Controlling Board under legislative control.

The Controlling Board amendments, which were originally adopted last Thursday by the Senate Finance Committee, were responsible for tying up the appropriations bill the entire day.

Group To Probe Entire Pentagon Operation

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gilbert Fitzgugh says he doesn't know much about defense spending, cost overruns and all that. But based on what he's read, "somebody ought to look into it, and it looks like its going to be me."

This was the reaction of the insurance industry executive—who never served in the military—after being named to head a panel which will recommend changes in the complex Pentagon operation.

President Nixon, appointing the 1930 Princeton graduate upon recommendation of Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, charged the panel with studying the Pentagon's organization, procurement practices and research and development programs.

Formation of the group—the remaining dozen members or so are still to be named—comes at a time of intense criticism about wasteful defense spending, sloppy military planning and civilian-military struggle over influence in the Pentagon.

Fitzgugh, a white-haired grandfatherly looking man, told Pentagon reporters he has opinions about such things as antiballistic missile deployment and Vietnam.

But he wouldn't say what his views are and "I am going to try very hard to keep them out of my study."

The purpose of the blue ribbon

panel, as Nixon described it, is not to determine national policy but to make recommendations on how the defense establishment can operate more efficiently and effectively.

The year-long study will, as Laird put it, be the most comprehensive review of the Defense Department since the Hoover Commission studies of 1947 and 1953.

"I am confident," Laird said in presenting Fitzgugh to reporters, "that the panel's recommendations will enable the department to perform its national security mission better and to save the taxpayer money by eliminating wasteful practices of the past."

Laird said a review of the Pentagon's farflung complex "is very much needed in order to restore public confidence in the Department of Defense and the credibility of the Department of Defense."

The panel will be delving into (Continued on Page 14)

House Passes Surtax Bill; Senate Sees 90-Day Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Acting after a last-minute plea from President Nixon and under strong pressure from leaders of both parties, the House has narrowly passed a bill to extend the income surtax.

Action also flared near the abandoned combat base at Khe Sanh. Two hours before dawn North Vietnamese troops attacked a night base camp of the U.S. 5th Mechanized Infantry Division near the Laotian border, but they were beaten back.

Spokesmen said 3 North Vietnamese were killed while three Americans were wounded. The U.S. forces were supported by air and artillery strikes.

The U.S. Command lifted the security wraps off a new operation against Viet Cong forces on Barrier Island, about 20 to 25 miles southeast of Da Nang. It said a battalion of 1,200 U.S. Marines of the 26th Regiment was landed by ship and helicopter on the island last Friday but so far has reported only light and scattered contact.

Control Board Dispute Halts Budget Passage

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate today began picking up the pieces of the legislative process that broke down at 3:15 a. m. — leaving Ohio theoretically without funds.

The breakdown occurred when Gov. James A. Rhodes balked at the padding of the State Controlling Board by the legislature.

The Senate Finance Committee amended the $4.1 billion budget bill to boost the five-man Controlling Board to seven members—adding four legislators to the two already there.

Rhodes offered a compromise three-member board which would include his representative and the chairmen of the finance committees of the House and Senate.

The House bought the proposal on a 51-31 vote. Senate Republicans refused it and Majority Leader Ted Gray R-3 Piqua was unable to muster enough administration votes to pass it.

As a result, the state began the fiscal year last midnight without operating funds.

All unspent appropriations lapse at the end of a fiscal biennium. There is no authority for spending, although the state is not broke because tax money remains in the treasury.

The Senate voted 26-5 to pass the appropriations bill with its amendments.

The budget includes operating funds for all state departments except education through June 30, 1971.

The Senate version of the bill would take the board away from the control of the administration and put it under the legislature.

It would also put six legislators — including two minority party members — and the finance director on the board. The present five-member board includes the finance director, the attorney general, state auditor and two legislators.

The Senate version also gives the board the power to transfer a department's unused appropriation to other departments.

The governor, who flew back from the Midwest Governor's Conference in Wichita, Kan., Monday to sign the bill is opposed to putting the Controlling Board under legislative control.

The Controlling Board amendments, which were originally adopted last Thursday by the Senate Finance Committee, were responsible for tying up the appropriations bill the entire day.

Gray failed in his bid to convince the Republican caucus to WASHINGTON (AP) — Gilbert Fitzhugh says he doesn't know much about defense spending, cost overruns and all that. But based on what he's read, "somebody ought to look into it, and it looks like its going to be me."

This was the reaction of the insurance industry executive—who never served in the military—after being named to head a panel which will recommend changes in the complex Pentagon operation.

President Nixon, appointing the 1930 Princeton graduate upon recommendation of Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, charged the panel with studying the Pentagon's organization, procurement practices and research and development programs.

Formation of the group—the remaining dozen members or so are still to be named—comes at a time of intense criticism about wasteful defense spending, sloppy military planning and civilian-military struggle over influence in the Pentagon.

Fitzhugh, a white-haired grandfatherly looking man, told Pentagon reporters he has opinions about such things as anti-ballistic missile deployment and Vietnam.

But he wouldn't say what his views are and "I am going to try very hard to keep them out of my study."

The purpose of the blue ribbon

panel, as Nixon described it, is not to determine national policy but to make recommendations on how the defense establishment can operate more efficiently and effectively.

The year-long study will, as Laird put it, be the most comprehensive review of the Defense Department since the Hoover Commission studies of 1947 and 1953.

"I am confident," Laird said in presenting Fitzhugh to reporters, "that the panel's recommendations will enable the department to perform its national security mission better and to save the taxpayer money by eliminating wasteful practices of the past."

Laird said a review of the Pentagon's sprawling complex "is very much needed in order to restore public confidence in the Department of Defense and the credibility of the Department of Defense."

The panel will be delving into

ABM Foes Rip Illegal Use Of $400 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration was accused today of illegally spending $400 million from funds appropriated for the disarmed Sentinel missile defense system on the revamped Safeguard program.

Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., in a prepared statement, said the Pentagon spent the money on Safeguard missiles and radar equipment although Congress has not approved the project and in spite of a Defense Department promise not to use the Sentinel funds.

"The fact is," Nelson said, "Congress has not authorized or appropriated one cent for the new Safeguard system. The administration's decision to spend Sentinel monies on the Safeguard system is a clear violation of the Congress' law-making authority."

Nixon junked the "thin" Sentinel system, which was designed to protect the nation's major cities, last March and asked Congress to approve the Safeguard system, armed at defending U.S. land-based offensive missiles.

Nelson's blast came after the President had put on his softest velvet glove in an attempt to break the apparent near deadlock in the Senate over Safeguard.

He met for an hour-and-a-half at the White House with five Republican Senate critics of the missile defense system—Sens. Charles Percy of Illinois, Charles McC. Mathias Jr. of Maryland, Marlow W. Cook of Kentucky, James B. Paerson of Kansas and Richard S. Schweiker of Pennsylvania.

Nixon's approach was of the softest soft-shell.

"The President emphasized that each member of Congress would have to exercise his own conscience. I had no feeling of being persuaded," Sen. Mathias said after the session.

Percy called the meeting, which had been scheduled for only 45 minutes, very friendly and said the President didn't even discuss Safeguard until he brought it up.

None of the five indicated any change of mind after the meeting.

Low Bid Received For Work At Park

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Frank Messer and Sons, Cincinnati, had the apparent low bid of $3,833,800 for general construction of a four-story lodge and other facilities, including a golf course, at the Salt Fork State Park near Cambridge.

The Department of Natural Resources opened bids on the project Monday. No bids were received for a contract covering electrical facilities for the 120-room lodge and individual units.

Control Board

"There was blood all over the floor but we got it," said Sen. Robin T. Turner, R-14 Marion in describing the Republican in-fighting during the three-hour caucus.

Turner, a fiscally conservative Republican, feels the board has become "a fourth branch of government" because it has assumed money appropriating and transferring powers that rightfully belong to the legislature.

He and other Republicans favor putting the board under legislative control were up against Rhodes, who was dead set against it.

The Senate accepted the two Controlling Board amendments along with 28 others. It rejected eight Democratic amendments along party line votes.

One Democratic amendment would have established annual budgets. The others would have given welfare children an annual $10 clothing allowance and provided more money for Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction workers, welfare recipients, mental health, the Civil Rights Commission, county nursing homes and the Local Government Fund.

New Pastor Named For St. Joseph's

MSGR. G. A. BUCHMANN

The new pastor of St. Joseph's parish is the Very Rev. Msgr. George A. Buchmann, now in residency at the W. Mound St. rectory.

Msgr. Buchmann, a native of Delaware, O., succeeds Msgr. Joseph McGlynn at the local Catholic Church. The new pastor came here from an assignment at Holy Rosary parish in Columbus.

A graduate of St. Charles College-Seminary in Columbus, Msgr. Buchmann studied theology at Mount St. Mary's in Cincinnati and was ordained a priest on Dec. 18, 1943.

He served as assistant pastor in Dennison in 1944 and as secretary for the Diocese of Columbus from 1945-47. He returned to his studies in canon law from 1947-1950 at the Lateran University in Italy where he received his doctorate in July of 1950.

AFTER returning from Rome in 1950, Msgr. Buchmann was named a tribunal for the Columbus diocese with pastoral duties in various parishes. He served as presiding judge of the Diocesan Tribunal from 1955 to 1960 in addition to holding the post as chaplain of St. Rita's Home for the Aged.

On Sept. 15, 1967 he was designated Papal Chamberlain and given the title of Very Rev. Monsignor by Pope Paul VI.

Msgr. Buchmann indicated he was "happy with his assignment to Circleville." He noted that all church records were in excellent condition which reflects the efficiency of his predecessors.

Seek Bids For Projects At Deercreek

Congressman Chalmers P. Wyllie announced today that bids are being received for recreational facilities at Deercreek Reservoir.

Jack Foulk, Congressman Wyllie's aid, said the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Huntington, W. Va., would accept bids for the construction of three comfort stations with utilities and sewage systems and two paved parking lots with access roads.

Foulk said bids would be accepted until Aug. 20, with work to begin 10 days after receipt of notification to proceed. All work is to be completed within 360 days after the notification to proceed.

Engineers estimate the projects at $100-300,000.

The youngster sustained minor abrasions in the mishap and was referred to the family physician for treatment.

Driver of the car that struck the youth was Florence B. Clark, 410 Fay Ave. Craycraft had started through the intersection northbound on Washington St. with a green light. Before he was able to traverse the intersection, the light changed.

Mrs. Clark did not see the bike rider in time to avoid striking him. Circleville Police investigated the accident. No citations were issued.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON (AP) — Health care for the mentally ill child is "uncertain, variable and inadequate," says a federal study commission.

Eight states have no facilities at all, public or private. It was recommended in the study released Monday that 100 child development councils be established to see that proper care and mental health services were available.

Legislation to implement five pilot projects will be proposed, said Sen. Abraham D. Ribicoff, D-Conn., who sponsored the bill creating the commission three years ago.

The commission said the admission of teen-agers to state hospitals has increased about 150 per cent in the last decade. Instead of being helped, the study said, "the vast majority are the worse for the experience."

"This is true on all levels, rich and poor, rural and urban... only a fraction of our young people get the help they need at the time they need it."

Nixon will meet with Park, aides said, at the new summer White House at San Clemente, Calif., Aug. 21-22.

JOB INTERVIEW — Mike Flynn (left), director of PICCA, interviews an unemployed person for work placement or job training as a part of the employment services offered by the community action organization. Flynn is seeking to have a full time State Employment Services office placed in Circleville. Since last September he has interviewed an estimated 250 jobless persons.

Employment Services Office Sought For Pickaway County

Mike Flynn, director of PICCA (Pickaway County Community Action Committee), is seeking a full time employment services office for Circleville.

"There is a real need for an employment services office here," says Flynn, who has written to Willard Dudley, director of the Ohio Bureau of Employment, Governor James Rhodes and Congressman Chalmers Wyllie asking for the service.

PICCA has its own employment service program and during the past winter much of Flynn's time was spent on the program, interviewing unemployed persons.

The Ohio Bureau of Employment currently sends personnel here each Friday for four hours to interview the unemployed and to secure jobs or job training.

FLYNN interviewed four to five persons daily through the PICCA program while the Bureau of Employment Services interviewer was able to talk to only two or three during his visits.

From September to May, Flynn interviewed 212 jobless persons in directing the PICCA employment service. He found jobs for 45 men and 17 women.

Form Commission For Full Review Of The Pentagon

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon announced Monday the formation of a "blue-ribbon panel" to study the organization of the Department of Defense, its research and development programs and procurement practices as requested by Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird.

Gilbert W. Fitzhugh, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., was named to head the study.

Find Many Cubans Entering U.S. Illegally From Mexico

MIAMI (AP) — By boat, barrel and bravado, hundreds of Cubans are illegally entering the United States from Mexico.

About 500 are known to have crossed the border at points from Texas to Arizona during the first four months of 1969. Concerned U.S. officials have stepped up enforcement, and at the plans said Laird "has said he expects this panel to conduct the most comprehensive review of the Department of Defense since Hoover Commission studies in 1947 and 1953."

The White House had no further information regarding the makeup of the panel or any additional details on its review.

time Cubans who try to come legally from Mexico must wait for a visa.

The law imposed a 120,000-person annual limit on the number of immigrants who can come to the United States annually from other western hemisphere nations. Previously there was no limit.

The rate of legal Cuban immigration has dropped by more than 80 per cent in the last year, but this does not include the more than 3,000 Cubans a month who come on direct refugee flights from Havana.

Most Cubans get to Mexico City legally. But once there, they are faced with the increasing delays plus the problem of paying living costs while being prohibited by the Mexican government from working. Some are quick to accept offers of help in crossing the border.

One Cuban woman recalled her stay in Mexico City with her two daughters: "In the hotel some Cuban asked me if we want to cross the border. I said 'Yes.' We moved to the border in a bus. There, we went to a hotel and a Mexican came to the group and he says, 'you are Mrs. ... I said, 'Yes, I am.'"

Then, after paying $600, the mother and daughters were escorted to a hole in the fence at the border town of Nogales, Ariz., and stepped through it at noon on a dark, rainy day.

The Danger Of 'Proving' Love

DEAR ABBY: I, like many of your other readers, read your column, but I never thought that I would ever be actually writing to you. I just wanted you to know that an article I read of yours in the newspaper about three years ago has helped me more than you'll ever know.

My boyfriend (fiance now) was always asking me to "prove my love" to him. I would always refuse and then show him this clipping from DEAR ABBY. As hard as this may seem to believe, it always worked. He is now in the United States Army stationed in Viet Nam. It's kind of strange when he writes and says, "I'm so glad that we waited." As soon as his time in the army is up, we're planning to be married. Thanks to you, what a beautiful wedding it's going to be!

You can disregard my letter, but you would be doing many girls a big favor if you would once again print that same article in your column. Thank you, Abby.

WAITING IN ASHVILLE
DEAR WAITING: The "article" you read, clipped and carried for so many years is a reprint from a chapter of my book "DEAR TEENAGER." I am pleased to run it again.

"Girls need to 'prove their love' thru illicit sex relations like a moose needs a hatrack. Why not 'prove your love' by sticking your head in the oven and turning on the gas? Or playing leap frog in the traffic? It's about as safe."

"Clear the cobwebs out of your head. Any fellow who asks you to 'prove your love' is trying to take you for the biggest, most glibble fool who ever walked. That 'proving' bit is one of the oldest and rottenest line ever invented! Does he love you? It doesn't sound like it. Someone who loves you wants whatever is best for you. But now figure it out. Year-Long Dream Goes Up In Smoke

HONOLULU (AP) — Lt. Chester Wawrzynski's year-long dream ended in a spectacular puff of smoke.

Wawrzynski, a Coast Guard pilot, proudly started off on the maiden flight of the home-made plane that took him 2,000 hours to build. But the daring young man had to bail out of his flying machine before it even left the ground.

The plane, looking like an oversized model aircraft, was to fly the 15 miles from Barbers Point Naval Air Station to Honolulu International Airport.

But as it started to take off, it began gyrating wildly and caught fire. Wawrzynski bailed out just before it exploded.

The predictable aftermath of 'proof' of this kind always finds Don Juan tiring of his sport. That's when he drops you, picks up his line, and goes casting elsewhere for bigger and equally silly fish."

"If he loves you, let him prove HIS love—by marching you to the ALTAR!"

DEAR ABBY: I want to say a few things to those guys who refer to a divorcee as "used merchandise," or a "second hand rose with crumpled petals."

I married a divorcee with five kids, and it's the best deal I ever made. A woman who has cooked and kept a house for a family knows all the stuff other brides spend the first five years learning. A woman who has had to support a bunch of kids alone knows the value of money, and can really pinch a penny.

And talk about appreciation! When I carry out the garbage my old lady hugs me and says I'm the most thoughtful man in the world. When I see those spoiled, helpless, wet-behind-the-ears chicks some of my friends are stuck with, I feel sorry for them.

It takes a gal who has gone thru hell to appreciate heaven when she has it.

"LUCKY," AND KNOWS IT
DEAR "LUCKY": And so's your "old lady." Congratulations.

DEAR ABBY: I wish you would have told "DISAPPOINTED MOTHER" who was so upset because her daughter was taking birth control pills FOUR months before her wedding to relax!

That girl was wise. My doctor put me on "the pill" six months before my wedding, and I'm glad he did because it took that long for him to find the right "pill" for me. I switched from five different brands before I hit on the one I could tolerate. Three had terrible side effects. They gave me all the symptoms of "early pregnancy" ... and I mean morning sickness and dizziness, too. Now wouldn't that have been lovely to experience on a honeymoon?

Moon-Earth Contamination

Some scientists for years have dreaded the day when man first sets foot on a distant space body. Not that they have less curiosity than others about what man might find there. They are worried about the contamination which could result.

No one knows what micro-organisms exist on the moon, or what it might do to that sphere if astronauts inadvertently brought to it earth germs. Yet scientists involved in next month's Apollo launch admit some contamination is unavoidable.

When it lands on the moon, the Apollo landing craft will contaminate some of the surface with chemical propellants. So large an area will be contaminated, it may not be possible for the astronauts to bring back a pure sample of moon rock.

When the spacemen return to earth, they may bring with them lunar germs if there are any. Their spacecraft will be placed in isolation, but this procedure is not fool-proof.

This is but one calculated risk involved in man's first exploration of another celestial body.

Bumper Wheat Crop

The wheat carryover, with the 1969 harvest underway, is now estimated by Washington at 800 million bushels, compared to slightly more than 500 million a year ago.

Acreage allotments were reduced, but production is estimated at 31 bushels an acre, compared to the previous high of 29 bushels set last year.

The Agriculture Department has raised its estimate of the winter wheat crop to 1,161,458,000 bushels. Spring Crop forecasts are not due until next month, but there are unofficial estimates of a crop of 298 million bushels.

These estimates of a bumper wheat crop, increased yield per acre and huge carryover — despite a 13 percent decrease in acreage decreed by the government — continue the pattern of many previous years.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) A really curious customer had lunch at a well known restaurant the other day.

So curious was she, in fact, that when the chef wasn't looking she ran her finger down the kitchen looking for dirt. Then she peered into his refrigerator and, behind his back, peeked into his garbage pail.

Her unusual behavior befell as soon as he entered the dining room. She was very impressed at the height of the wallpaper, and observed the appropriateness of the art that hung on the wall.

She scribbled little notes on the attentiveness of the waiters. And although she ate her food with pleasure, she ate critically also. She examined her London broil closely to make sure it was medium rare, as ordered.

After reflecting on the quality of the wine and the dessert and the final cup of coffee, and as the check was being presented, she surprised her very solicitous waiter. "I would like to speak with the manager," she said.

The manager hurried to the table, apprehension creased in his features, and the curious lady identified herself to him as an inspector. Her card showed she worked for Mobil Travel Guides, which rates 25,000 motels, hotels and restaurants.

It was then that she was invited to see the wine cellar and the chef's refrigerator and the quality of the meats and vegetables to be found in the kitchen.

The restaurant received four stars, meaning it was "outstanding; worth a special effort to reach." It fell short of five stars—one of "the best in the country"—but only 11 are so ranked.

It could have received three stars, meaning excellent; or two stars, indicating very good, or one star, meaning good—better than average. It could also have received no star at all, and then it wouldn't be included in the guide.

Racing through the country at the moment are 72 such inspectors, checking food and accommodations that will make up the ratings that go into next year's guides. In a sense they have one of the best jobs in the country, but they can't let it be too widely known.

The curious customer of this story, for example, declined to permit her name to be used because it might compromise her on her rounds. She is a widow and works up to six months a year to supplement her pension. More typically, a field inspector travels six to eight weeks, makes about 10 inspections a day when facilities are close together and much fewer at other times, and earns about $125 a week after expenses.

One drawback is that the inspector has to pay for everything out of his own pocket—and four-and-five-star places can cost dearly. So also can gasoline and tips and the various incidental costs of travel.

Working on a contract basis, the inspectors can more than pay for a vacation. Attesting to their satisfaction is the low turnover rate, although Mobil did hire 23 new inspectors for duty this summer.

The qualifications are surprisingly simple. Curiosity, of course. But, according to Marion Stevens, who is in charge of the inspectors, the other attributes sought are rather ordinary: intelligence, ease with people, plenty of travel experience. reports it has already received many reservations for next New Year's Eve. Going like hot cakes,—on, say, a cold, December night?

An Illinois amateur weather prognosticator—his predictions are based on his study of Lake Michigan perch—who has only been wrong four times in the last 30 years forecasts a cool summer. That's one fish story we hope comes true!

What puzzles us is why that Englishman, planning to row from Scotland to Newfoundland, called his craft "Cold Comfort." Figured he'd need to bypass some icebergs?

Thirty-five new autos went into the briny when the boat transporting them beached on an English mud bank. Sea-going hacks?

Co-eds of Padgate College in Britain are knitting what will be the world's longest muffler—a mile in length. Could make a nice scarf for that long-necked Loch Ness sea serpent!

When finished the muffler will be cut into normal-length scarves for elderly persons. That's a grand (ma and pa) idea!

Moon-Earth Contamination

Some scientists for years have dreaded the day when man first sets foot on a distant space body. Not that they have less curiosity than others about what man might find there. They are worried about the contamination which could result.

No one knows what micro-organisms exist on the moon, or what it might do to that sphere if astronauts inadvertently brought to it earth germs. Yet scientists involved in next month's Apollo launch admit some contamination is unavoidable.

When it lands on the moon, the Apollo landing craft will contaminate some of the surface with chemical propellants. So large an area will be contaminated, it may not be possible for the astronauts to bring back a pure sample of moon rock.

When the spacemen return to earth, they may bring with them lunar germs if there are any. Their spacecraft will be placed in isolation, but this procedure is not fool-proof.

This is but one calculated risk involved in man's first exploration of another celestial body.

Bumper Wheat Crop

The wheat carryover, with the 1969 harvest underway, is now estimated by Washington at 800 million bushels, compared to slightly more than 500 million a year ago.

Acreage allotments were reduced, but production is estimated at 31 bushels an acre, compared to the previous high of 29 bushels set last year.

The Agriculture Department has raised its estimate of the winter wheat crop to 1,161,458,000 bushels. Spring Crop forecasts are not due until next month, but there are unofficial estimates of a crop of 298 million bushels.

These estimates of a bumper wheat crop, increased yield per acre and huge carryover — despite a 13 percent decrease in acreage decreed by the government — continue the pattern of many previous years.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

POSSIBLY the laziest hitch-hiker extant was spotted sound asleep on the greensward bordering the Governor Dewey Thruway one afternoon. Propped up beside him was a big sign reading "LAS VEGAS." A line in smaller type below said, "PLEASE BLOW HORN."

Compared to South America's Amazon River, our own Mississippi is just a babbling brook.

With its thousand tributaries—10 larger than the Rhine—the Amazon, claims Willard Price in his book, "Roving South," contains a tenth of the world's running water and drains an area equal to 85 percent of the United States. It is navigable for over 2,400 miles, and nearing the Atlantic, is more than 150 miles wide.

The first known descent of the Amazon by a white man was made in 1541 by Francisco De Orellana, whose bug-eyed reports of the beautiful, seven-foot female warriors he encountered en route gave the river its name. These ladies, alas, exist there no more. The last of them were snapped up years ago by model agencies, Las Vegas showmen, and ladies' basketball teams.

A long-winded writer I know refuses to lunch any longer with his editor—even when the latter volunteers to sign the tab. "The last time we dined together," complains the author, "the so-and-so blue-penciled half of my order."

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

Air pollution in our cities by soot, chemical fumes, automobile exhaust, and filth leaves its mark on our respiratory systems and lungs. When these irritants are added to occupational exposure to paints and chemicals in factories and incessant cigarette smoking, our poor lungs can hardly be expected to stay in good health. The only reason they may be attributed to the wonders of the body that try to protect us from these avoidable hazards.

Another pollution of the air is not so apparent. This is the noise that bombards all of us without our awareness and without protection. All of us are annoyed by the loud noises of the sanitation worker, the whine of a jet motor, the persistent noise of an automobile engine, the high decibels of our radio and television, all blasting noise at the most sensitive and beautifully constructed machine in all the world, our hearing mechanism.

Gunfire, rotary motors, the noises of typewriters and computer machines consistently attack the tiny, delicate cells on which hearing depends. Long exposure to these and other sounds at high intensity can cause permanent damage in the cochlea, a seashell-like organ which transmits sound from the inner ear to the brain.

These sounds are, as I said, annoying, but there are others which we cannot hear which do as much damage to our hearing as the ones I described. Our courts are filled with thousands of cases of people claiming benefits for their loss of hearing after exposure to long sustained occupational noise. Ship workers and airplane mechanics, who are neglectful of the protective devices offered them, are attacked by ultrasonic sounds that injure their hearing mechanism.

Normal hearing in young people can detect sounds up to 20,000 cycles per second. The capacity to hear these high tones falls as we get older and many progress in the elderly to the point where they cannot hear sounds at 4,000 cycles per second. Ordinary speech range is from 300 to 3,000 cycles per second.

The ultrasonic sounds that constantly attack our hearing may go as high as 200,000 cycles and do their damage, while we blithely continue on our daily rounds. It has been shown fairly conclusively that people above

Provisional Government

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
The Foreign Minister of Ruritania was journeying through his memories. "It's supposed to be ominous," he said, "for your peace-with-honor prospects in Vietnam that the Communist Viet Cong, or the National Liberation Front, has suddenly metamorphosed into something that calls itself a Provisional Government. I know what some of your Kremlinologists are thinking now that Moscow has recognized this new Provisional Government as the rightful authority in South Vietnam. The Kremlinologists recall the history of Stalin and the so-called Lublin Poles, and what befell Poland when the Communists used the Lublin Committee to get control in Warsaw."

"Well," so the Foreign Minister continued, "the Polish business was bad enough. When your Franklin Roosevelt and Britain's Winston Churchill agreed at Yalta to let the Lublin Poles, who were so obviously Moscow stooges, combine with non-Communist Polish government-in-exile characters such as Stanislaw Mikolajczyk to form a coalition regime, it meant the end of Polish freedom. The Lublinites eventually swallowed up everything, and Mikolajczyk had to flee for his life."

"The Russians clearly hope to repeat the story of the Polish takeover in South Vietnam. They expect to wear you down at the peace negotiations in Paris. After you have lost a few thousand more young Americans during a protracted 'fight-talk' period, they are confident that you will agree to a merger of the Viet Cong's Provisional Government with the Thieu government. They are sure that once they have their men in key South Vietnam positions they will be able to grab everything. They let Mikolajczyk remain in Poland for two years after 1945 as Minister of Agriculture and Deputy Premier. But a phony election ruined Mikolajczyk's political base. Mikolajczyk slipped out of the country in 1947 just in time to escape arrest."

I remember what he said when he arrived in London: 'I did not want to be shot and killed like a sheep.' If things work out in Vietnam as the Communists think they will work out, those words will be repeated by Thieu when he runs for his life to Manila or Honolulu."

The Foreign Minister of Ruritania paused reflectively. "You know," he went on, "the Communist takeover in Poland doesn't actually mean that the Soviet formula for getting control of countries through the Provisional Government gambit is infallible. My memory goes back even further than Yalta, to the time of the Finnish-Russian War of 1940. Your SDS young people have certainly never heard of a Finnish character named Otto Kuusinen. He was a member of the Bolshevik Old Guard who had served as international secretary of the Third International — you know, the Comintern — for almost twenty years between the first and second World Wars. His headquarters were in Moscow, and he had practically forgotten he was a Finn, but his daughter Herta had gone back to Helsinki, the Finnish capital, in the Thirties to work in the local underground. This tenuous family connection was enough to make Kuusinen a viable Finnish citizen in Moscow's eyes. So the Soviets, assuming that their armies could roll over Finland in a matter of days, named Kuusinen head of a Provisional Finnish Government. They expected to install him in Helsinki within a month."

"The Finns, as some of us old folks remember, crossed everybody up by fighting the Russians to a standstill in the so-called Winter War. They weren't having anything of this Provisional Government nonsense. Eventually they were compelled to yield the Karelian Isthmus up close to Leningrad to the Russians, but they kept their national integrity."

"So what happened to the Kuusinen 'Worker's Government'? It just faded away. Today you won't find any mention of the Kuusinen business in official Soviet history."

"The moral is that the Soviets don't have any magic formula in the Provisional Government racket. If Roosevelt and Churchill had stood up to Stalin at Yalta, and if General Patton had been allowed to remain in Prague after beating the Russians to it, even the episode of the Lublin Poles might never have happened."

"I'm not running your government, and won't presume to tell Nixon what to do about the Viet Cong's own 'Lublin Committee.' But in Ruritania we know that the only way to deal with a Communist is never to give him an even break. If you do, he'll kill you the second time around."

WASHINGTON MEMO

By Congressman
CHALMERS P. WYLIE
15th District of Ohio

This week the House passed, by a vote of 388 yeas to 7 nays, the Independent Offices Department of Housing and Urban Development Appropriations Act for fiscal year 1970. The budget for federal housing was contained in the $14.9 billion appropriation bill.

It also provided for funds for 20 independent agencies including $7.7 billion for veterans and $3.7 billion for NASA. The $1.6 billion for housing includes authority to enter into long-range contracts for construction of low and low-moderate income housing. The $384.3 million slash by the House was 20 per cent below the HUD budget request.

Cutbacks were effected in the rent supplements program, which was reduced from $100 million to $50 million. The Urban Renewal budget request was cut from $150 million to $100 million. Funds for model cities were dropped from $675 million, as requested by President Nixon, to $500 million. In addition, the $1.5 billion Johnson Administration request for advanced new construction for model cities funding for fiscal year 1971 was eliminated completely.

RIOT RIDER
The House adopted an amendment which would bar college housing aid to any university or college not complying with a law passed last year designed to cut off federal aid to students involved in riots. No college has acted to cut off aid under that law despite disruption on approximately 250 college campuses during last year. A second amendment adopted by a voice vote provides $5 million for expenses necessary to carry out the functions of the Open Housing law. The original budget request for this measure was $10.5 million.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION
By a record vote of 405 yeas to 3 nays, the House passed the appropriation bill for the Atomic Energy Commission. This bill would authorize appropriations to the Atomic Energy Commission totalling $2.4 billion. These funds will be used for operating expenses and capital equipment funds for the fiscal year 1970. For comparative purposes I might note that the amount passed $64 million less than the amount requested in the budget submitted by President Johnson. It is significant that this amount is $164 million less than the amount authorized in fiscal year 1969. It is to be pointed out that these monies are not to be used for the deployment of the Anti-Ballistic Missile System but are earmarked for research and development only.

FOOD STAMPS
The Senate approved an emergency resolution to boost the food stamp authorization to $750 million for fiscal year 1970 — more than double the $340 million now authorized by law.

Such authorization was needed now because fiscal year 1969 ends on June 30. A comprehensive bill to overhaul the whole food stamp program is not ready for passage by Congress.

FISH AND WILDLIFE
The Department of the Interior announced the release of Federal Aid funds for fish and wildlife research, acquisition and development. An additional apportionment will be made next fall. Funds for Fish and Wildlife restoration come from federal excise taxes collected from manufacturers, importers and producers of hunting and fishing equipment. Distribution of such funds is based on fish and wildlife areas and the number of paid hunting and fishing license holders in a state. Ohio received $151,705 for fish improvement and $393,800 for wildlife improvement, for a total of $545,514.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY
The House Internal Security Committee is continuing its investigation into the activities of the Students for a Democratic Society. Witnesses called before the Committee this week included officials of Kent State University.

Neil Letterman, the staff investigator, in his testimony stated that the SDS members speaking at Kent State University preached violence on the campuses. In their utterances of revenge, they demanded that in this imperialistic society radical change be brought about through revolutionary action in which leaders of our society would undoubtedly be killed. Repression was called for by SDS speakers through elimination of such programs on the Kent State campus as ROTC and the law enforcement school.

The police and security officials at Kent State University expressed satisfaction with the guidelines for coping with campus disorders set up by the University Coordinating Plan and little toleration for the disorder advocated by the SDS leaders. They expressed hope that federal monies in the form of grants given to institutions and individuals involved in such situations would be withheld as an aid to reducing disorders. They expressed the feeling that progress is being made in closing the communication gap between University officials and the student body.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) A really curious customer had lunch at a well known restaurant the other day.

So curious was she, in fact, that when the chef wasn't looking she ran her finger down the kitchen tile looking for dirt. Then she peered into his refrigerator and, behind his back, peeked into his garbage pail.

Her unusual behavior began as soon as he entered the dining room. She was very impressed at the height of the cell-painter, and observed the appropriateness of the art that hung on the wall.

She scribbled little notes on the attentiveness of the waiters. And although she ate her food with pleasure, she ate critically also. She examined her London broil closely to make sure it was medium rare, as ordered.

After reflecting on the quality of the wine and the dessert and the final cup of coffee, and as the check was being presented, she surprised her very solicitous waiter. "I would like to speak with the manager," she said.

The manager hurried to the table, apprehension creased in his features, and the curious lady identified herself to him as an inspector. Her card showed she worked for Mobil Travel Guides, which rates 25,000 motels, hotels and restaurants.

It was then that she was invited to see the wine cellar and the chef's refrigerator and the quality of the meats and vegetables to be found in the kitchen.

The restaurant received four stars, meaning it was "outstanding; worth a special effort to reach." It fell short of five stars—one of "the best in the country"—but only 11 are so ranked.

It could have received three stars, meaning excellent; or two stars, indicating very good, or one star, meaning good—better than average. It could also have received no star at all, and then it wouldn't be included in the guide.

Racing through the country at the moment are 72 such inspectors, checking food and accommodations that will make up the ratings that go into next year's guides. In a sense they have one of the best jobs in the country, but they can't let it be too widely known.

The curious customer of this story, for example, declined to permit her name to be used because it might compromise her on her rounds. She is a widow and works up to six months a year to supplement her pension. More typically, a field inspector travels six to eight weeks, makes about 10 inspections a day when facilities are close together and much fewer at other times, and earns about $125 a week after expenses.

One drawback is that the inspector has to pay for everything out of his own pocket—and four-and-five-star places can cost dearly. So also can gasoline and tips and the various incidental costs of travel.

Working on a contract basis,

the inspectors can more than pay for a vacation. Attesting to their satisfaction is the low turnover rate, although Mobile did hire 23 new inspectors for duty this summer.

The qualifications are surprisingly simple. Curiosity, of course. But, according to Marion Stevens, who is in charge of the inspectors, the other attributes sought are rather ordinary: intelligence, ease with people, plenty of travel experience.

reports it has already received many reservations for next New Year's Eve. Going like hot cakes, —on, say, a cold, December night?

What puzzles us is why that Englishman, planning to row from Scotland to Newfoundland, called his craft "Cold Comfort." Figured he'd need to bypass some icebergs?

Thirty-five new autos went into the briny when the boat transporting them beached on an English mud bank. Sea-going hawks?

JUNKIST AWARD — Howard Smith (right), owner and general manager of the Blue Ribbon Dairy, was presented with a Sunkist Quality Control plaque representing excellence in the production of Sunkist Orange Juice Drink. Making the award is Ike Copas, district manager for the Sunkist Growers Products Department, Ontario, Calif. According to Copas, the dairy receives the orange juice as a concentrate. Checks are made periodically to make sure member dairies follow the established procedure in producing the orange drink.

Elderly Woman Dies, Other Weak After Confused Trip

CLERMONT, Fla. (AP) — Two elderly sisters with a pocketbook full of directions wandered for three days on a 20-mile auto trip before one died and the other collapsed.

Katherine Friedrich, 80, and her sister Louisa, 84, visited the Lake County tax assessor Friday in the central Florida community of Tavares. Then they began the drive to Clermont, where the retired teachers lived with their two older sisters.

A power company crew found Katherine's body sprawled in an orange grove Monday. A police search party found Louisa, confused and incoherent, lying 200 yards away.

Police Chief Prentice Tyndall of Clermont said car tracks showed the women turned off U.S. Highway 27 on to a clay road and drove two miles into the grove. They then turned on a sandy path where their car bogged down to its hubcaps.

"Their two older sisters, one about 86 and the other near 90, called us when Katherine and Louisa didn't come home Friday night," Tyndall said.

He said Katherine's old, cracked leather purse was packed with scraps of paper scrawled over with highway directions.

Apollo Crew Is Examined

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 11 astronauts today undergo the second of three major physical examinations before taking off for the moon.

Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins planned several hours with the doctors who are drawing a thorough medical profile of the spacemen for in-flight and post-flight comparison.

The first exam was completed June 16. Another is set for July 11, five days before the astronauts are launched on the moon-landing journey.

The medical information will be particularly important when Armstrong and Aldrin walk the lunar surface July 21. It will provide clues to when the astronauts might be tiring in the unfamiliar one-sixth gravity field on the moon.

While the astronauts are on the surface, doctors in the mission control center will monitor heart rate, oxygen consumption and temperature of the suit cooling water as it enters and leaves the system. The latter will be an indirect measurement of the amount of heat produced by the body.

Dr. Charles A. Berry, the astronauts' chief medical officer, explained:

"We know what their work capacity on earth is at various heart rate plateaus—120 beats a minute, 140, 160 etc.—and also the related oxygen consumption and how much heat the body generates."

"They stopped at various places to ask the way home but they just kept getting lost," Tyndall added.

A member of the group that found Louisa said: "She's lucky that power crew was working in the grove. The orange picking is almost ended now and she could have been in there three weeks before anybody from the grove went into that section."

Tyndall said Louisa apparently thought she was at home and, on seeing her rescuers, demanded to know "what are all these policemen doing in my yard?"

A hospital spokesman said

Louisa was in good condition but could not recall what had happened since she and Katherine left Tavares. He said she had not been told of her sister's death.

Ohioan Gets Carnegie Hero Award

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission of Pittsburgh, Pa., Monday posthumously cited James E. Chapman, 22, of Cleveland for bravery for his attempt to rescue two policemen during a gun battle last July 23 in Cleveland.

Mrs. Barbara Chapman, the 21-year-old widow of Chapman, is to receive a bronze medal and monthly death benefits of $80 for five years from the commission. She has two children, Bridgette, 2, and Monique, 3.

Cleveland policemen have said that Chapman volunteered to drive his car into the area of a gun battle between police and snipers last July 23 in the city's Glenville area.

A policeman accompanied Chapman in the car in an effort to rescue fallen policemen Lt. Leroy C. Jones, and Willard J. Wolff, who were also killed.

Chapman was slain as he reached the yard where Wolff was lying. One man, Black Nationalist leader Fred "Ahmed" Evans, has already been convicted and sentenced to death on charges in connection with the slaying of Chapman and three policemen, including Jones and Wolff.

The trial of a second defendant, Lathan Donald, began Monday in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court. Three other men await trial on similar charges.

Ohio Assembly Holds Key To College Fees

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Any decision on whether Ohio will freeze fees at state colleges and universities for two years rests with the General Assembly.

"There is much speculation as to what the legislature will do," said James Furman, executive director of the Ohio Board of Regents. "The fee increase will depend upon the amount of money allocated by the state legislature."

Gov. James A. Rhodes proposed the freeze in his State of the State address Feb. 5 after students protested planned increases.

Now, reports are spreading about higher costs for higher education. College administrators, expecting to face the necessity of raising fees, have warned students.

President Robert I. White cautioned the 20,000 students at Kent State University to be prepared for a fee hike. In his weekly column in the student newspaper, White said the university had no idea at that time how much the increase would be.

A bill which includes expenditures for higher education in state has been in the Ohio House

Finance Committee since early April.

If the legislature allocates the money according to the governor's suggestions, Furman said, there will be no need for a fee increase.

Furman said that state schools have two sources of revenue—fees and appropriations. If the cost of operating the schools is not covered by the appropriations he said, they must be covered by fees.

The "one prime factor" in any fee increase would be faculty salaries, Furman said. Salaries, he added, make up, at least 70 per cent of a university's budget.

Salaries have gone up at a rate of seven or eight per cent a year and are "largely responsible" for the threatened fee increases, Furman reported.

The legislature, he continued, is not reluctant to allocate more money for education. The question is how much money is needed from where it is to come, he said.

"Is the over-all balance of things," he said, "never in the history of Ohio has as much money been spent on education as in the last five years."

In that time $400 million has been spent on new facilities, he added.

Furman said that tuition at private colleges has increased much more rapidly than fees at state universities.

Those schools, he said, have grants and tuition, as main sources of income. He said that the grants are quite minimal and as a result, the balance of cost must be covered by tuition.

When asked if the threatened fee increase has hurt university enrollment, he said, "No, not at this point."

"Ohio has changed its emphasis over the past six years to a commuter type of institutions, he continued.

"This type of school saves the student the high cost of room and board making it less expensive to get a college education. The private college tuition has increased more rapidly, he said, making "the public institutions a better deal."

"We've always felt that the first commitment is to maintain the freeze on fees," he said.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

Elderly Woman Dies, Other Weak After Confused Trip

CLERMONT, Fla. (AP) — Two elderly sisters with a pocketbook full of directions wandered for three days on a 20-mile auto trip before one died and the other collapsed.

Katherine Freidrich, 80, and her sister Louisa, 84, visited the Lake County tax assessor Friday in the central Florida community of Tavares. Then they began the drive to Clermont, where the retired teachers lived with their two older sisters.

A power company crew found Katherine's body sprawled in an orange grove Monday. A police search party found Louisa, confused and incoherent, lying 200 yards away.

Police Chief Prentice Tyndall of Clermont said car tracks showed the women turned off U.S. Highway 27 on to a clay road and drove two miles into the grove. They then turned up a sandy path where their car bogged down to its hubcaps.

"Their two older sisters, one about 86 and the other near 90, called us when Katherine and Louisa didn't come home Friday night," Tyndall said.

He said Katherine's old, cracked leather purse was packed with scraps of paper scrawled over with highway directions.

Ohioan Gets Carnegie Hero Award

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Carnegie Hero Fund Commission of Pittsburgh, Pa., Monday posthumously cited James E. Chapman, 22, of Cleveland for bravery for his attempt to rescue two policemen during a gun battle last July 23 in Cleveland.

Mrs. Barbara Chapman, the 21-year-old widow of Chapman, is to receive a bronze medal and monthly death benefits of $80 for five years from the commission. She has two children, Bridgette, 2, and Monique, 3.

Cleveland policemen have said that Chapman volunteered to drive his car into the area of a gun battle between police and snipers last July 23 in the city's Glenville area.

Apollo Crew Is Examined

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 11 astronauts today undergo the second of three major physical examinations before taking off for the moon.

Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins planned several hours with the doctors who are drawing a thorough medical profile of the spacemen for in-flight and post-flight comparison.

The first exam was completed June 16. Another is set for July 11, five days before the astronauts are launched on the moon-landing journey.

The medical information will be particularly important when Armstrong and Aldrin walk the lunar surface July 21. It will provide clues to when the astronauts might be tiring in the unfamiliar one-sixth gravity field on the moon.

While the astronauts are on the surface, doctors in the mission control center will monitor heart rate, oxygen consumption and temperature of the suit cooling water as it enters and leaves the system. The latter will be an indirect measurement of the amount of heat produced by the body.

Dr. Charles A. Berry, the astronauts' chief medical officer, explained:

"We know what their work capacity on earth is at various heart rate plateaus—120 beats a minute, 140, 160 etc.—and also the related oxygen consumption and how much heat the body generates."

U.S. To Trade Ft. Hayes Land For Office Site?

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The U. S. government is interested in trading 48.5 acres of the soon-to-be-closed Ft. Hayes for a site near downtown Columbus for a new federal office building.

That word Monday from a General Services Administration spokesman in Washington dashed the Columbus Board of Education's hopes of acquiring the land for a technical school.

The federal government now has offices in privately owned buildings all over the city. The government last year paid more than $432,000 in rent.

One location mentioned for the federal office building is the site of the Ohio Penitentiary, which will be torn down after completion of a new prison at Lucasville.

Area Youth Attend Farm Bureau School At Otterbein

Ten young people from the area were among the 122 youths from 22 southeastern counties to attend the Farm Bureau Youth school at Otterbein College for the development of leadership and personal ability.

In the summer school, the program provided the young people with a working knowledge about the democratic procedure used in developing policy of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation.

Also, on the program was a schedule of group discussions aimed at teaching the youth how state government operates. There was a mock House of Representatives with a simulated bill moving through the committees and the legislature to become a final law.

The participants used the various committees of Farm Bureau such as the Public Affairs, and Farm Bureau Boards and Landmark Farm Bureau Cooperative boards to simulate the policy making process of the Farm Bureau.

THE one week training school, which is one of the five being held in the state this summer, also features classes in group singing, adventures in good music, public speaking, poise, manners and youth, youth looks at traffic safety, square dance calling and the organization of co-ops.

Receiving scholarships to the school were: Vickie Fraunfelter, Jan Thompson, Judy Schein, Kim Long, Richard Riddle, Don Archer, Darlene Collins, Ron Greenwood, Bruce McFadden and Keith Lands. Also attending as staff members were Nelson Stevens and Valerie Wilson.

Fear Future Of Colleges

NEW YORK (AP) — Eight college presidents who studied campus unrest concluded that colleges cannot continue "to take the battering inflicted during the past academic year."

In a two-day conference at the John La Farge Institute here, the eight administrators discussed campus disruptions in the past academic year. The meeting was sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, a Roman Catholic fraternal organization.

Two presidents—Dumont F. Kenny of York College and Joseph P. McMurray of Queens College, both branches of the City University of New York—recommended a visible police presence in the face of threatened disturbances. The two men presented the conference's findings at a news conference Monday.

"The heat and passion of the arena and the market place are very dangerous," Kenny said. "A campus is not as thick-skinned as a city hall or an army headquarters."

Among the guidelines of the administrators were no amnesty for student lawbreakers and no negotiations "when personnel are detained or buildings occupied."

The presidents came out against "imposition of repressive legislation designed as campus control measures." Present laws are adequate to deal with disruption, they said.

Area Registrants Report For Duty In Armed Forces

Two Pickaway County youths were inducted into the armed forces June 24, through Selective Service. Richard P. Shaw of Route 1, Kingston and Richard R. Swanger, Ashville, were inducted into the U.S. Army at the Ft. Hayes Induction Center, Columbus.

Red Cross Volunteers served coffee and doughnuts, donated by Lindsey's Bakery, to the inductees, prior to their departure from Circleville.

Both men were also presented with a gift packet from Red Cross and Sertoma Club.

During the month of June, four area registrants enlisted in branches of the armed forces.

Now serving with the Army is Walter W. Ehmling Jr., Columbus. James K. Kegg, 541 Mowrer Rd., Glenn E. Forrest, 454 N. Court St. and Harmon Gillespie Jr. of Harrisburg enlisted and have reported for duty with the Marine Corps.

Burglary Suspect Is 'Apprehended'

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP)—A passing motorist's report that he'd just seen a man crawling through a Hollywood Beach hotel that is closed for the summer sent police rushing to the scene.

Police rounded up the climber only to find he is a hotel employee who stays in the building in the summer. They asked him why he crawled through the window. "It's closer to my room than the door is," he responded.

But the man promised he'll go the long way around next time.

Solons Continue Food Stamp Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters of a proposal to give free food stamps to impoverished families have lost a close fight in the Senate Agriculture Committee, but say they will carry the battle to the floor.

The committee rejected the proposal 7-5 Monday. Supporters of the free food stamp proposal reportedly included Sens. George McGovern, D-S.D.; Marlow W. Cook, R-Ky.; Robert J. Dole, R-Kan.; Herman E. Talmadge, D-Ga. and James B. Allen D-Ala.

Truth In Lending Law In Effect Starting Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The truth in lending law takes effect today, enabling consumers to know at the outset how much credit will cost.

It won't make credit any cheaper. But it will more easily allow borrowers to shop around for the best terms.

For the first time, under the law signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson last year, lenders will be required to furnish potential borrowers with complete information on how much credit will cost, with a realistic statement of the interest charge.

Consumers henceforth must be informed of all costs, direct and indirect, of a credit arrangement. The law applies to banks, savings and loan associations, department stores, credit card issuers, credit unions, automobile dealers, residential mortgage brokers, and anyone extending or arranging credit for which a finance charge is payable.

Talmadge had introduced a measure which would set $40 as the minimum at which the poor would have to pay to receive the stamps which can be traded for food at grocery stores.

This was only one of a stack of complex suggestions made to the committee which hopes to complete work this week on a bill to liberalize and broaden the food stamp program.

McGovern is cosponsor of a bill which would make free stamps available to families with monthly incomes less than $80.

President Nixon has proposed free food stamps for families with little or no income, roughly less than $30 a month.

The government in early March began an experimental program giving free food stamps to families with less than $30 monthly income in two South Carolina counties. This was a turnabout in a long-standing government policy which required some payment from any families receiving the stamps.

During the past year the Agriculture Department had reduced the requirements for the extremely poor so that a family of four could pay $2 a month and receive stamps for $58 worth of food. But on a national average food-stamp recipients in all eligible income ranges receive an average of $10 in coupons for $6.

States now set their own guidelines for determining eligibility for the stamps, but the Senate committee reportedly has agreed to change this by giving the Agriculture Department authority to specify the requirements.

The committee also was said to have recommended increasing federal food stamp financing from the present $340 million annually to $1.5 billion by 1971. The Senate already has adopted a resolution authorizing $750 million to be spent on the stamps in the new fiscal year starting Tuesday.

The administration had proposed that $610 million be provided for the stamp program in the 1970 fiscal year.

9 More Ohioans Die In Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP)—Eight more Ohio servicemen have been killed in recent action in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Monday.

Army men were Spec. 4 Robert C. Cameron of Elyria; Spec. 4 Terence A. Huebner of Monclova; Spec. 4 Monte R. Jneo of Sidney; Spec. 4 Robert L. King of East Delphos; Pfc. L. Southard of Bellefontaine and Spec. 5 Victor T. Shaffer of Toledo.

In addition, Army Spec. 4 Richard N. Mamie of St. Clairsville died not as a result of hostile action, the Pentagon reported.

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — The Coast Guard Academy Monday will open its doors to 439 new cadets, the largest entering class in the history of the academy.

Ohio Guard To Loan Vehicle To Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Safety Director Joseph F. McManamon has worked out an agreement with the Ohio National Guard for loan of an armored personnel carrier to use as a rescue vehicle during riot situations.

The carrier is equipped with a machine gun. A city spokesman said a crew is in a permanent state of readiness for a call into action.

Untangle Police Exam Situation In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Quickly naming more policemen to Cleveland's short-handed force was the objective Monday when a replacement was recommended for the head of the city's civil service commission, recently indicted on charges of perjury and destruction of public records.

The appointment of badly-needed policemen to the Cleveland force has been delayed several months because of a Cuyahoga County Grand Jury investigation into police promotion and entrance examinations. The commission is responsible for writing and administering the tests.

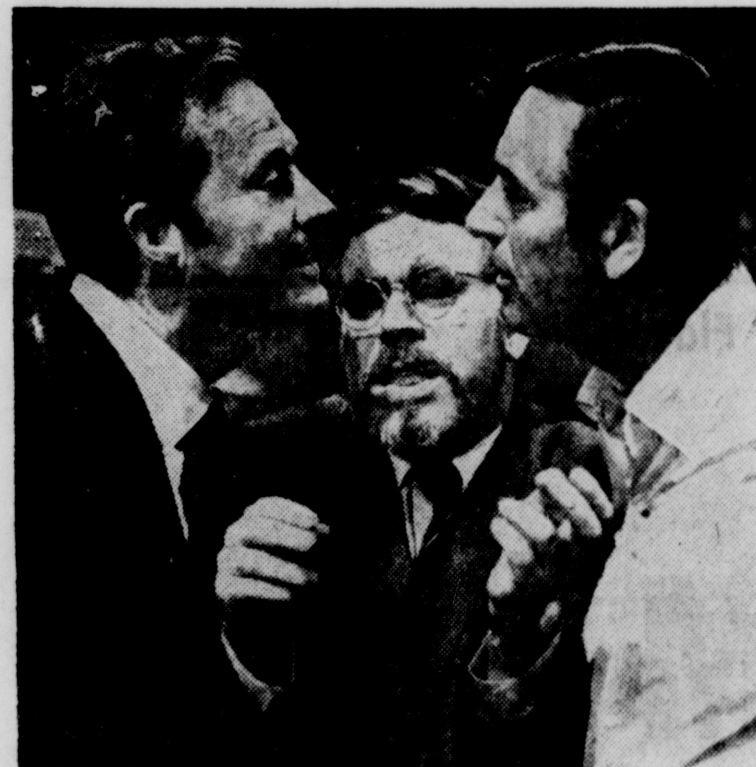

The investigation was started after a Cleveland policeman claimed he received a copy of the Jan. 23 promotion test after the examination.

David Sindell, senior partner of a Cleveland law firm, was Mayor Carl B. Stokes' choice to replace Jay B. White, who resigned earlier in the day as president of the commission. Charles Butts, 27, secretary of the commission and charged along with White, also resigned Monday.

"While the president of the commission must be selected by its members," Mayor Stokes told a news conference, "I am recommending to them that Mr. Sindell become the next president as I have confidence that his experience and integrity will restore the public confidence and unsharpen the problems now facing the commission."

Licavoli Petition Heard By Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys for convicted slayer Thomas Licavoli contended in federal court Monday that witnesses were coerced into testifying against the former gangster and that publicity surrounding the 1934 case prevented a fair trial.

The arguments were presented in support of a habeas corpus petition for Licavoli, who was convicted of four gangland murders in Toledo. The petition is similar to one rejected by a state appellate court.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice to Consumers of Certain Broad Spectrum Antibiotics

The State of Ohio, through its Attorney General, Paul W. Brown, has pending a legal action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against certain drug companies (Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., American Cyanamid Company, Bristol-Myers Company, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation (Squibb) and The Upjohn Company) alleging that those companies violated the antitrust laws in the sale of certain of their broad spectrum antibiotic products within the period 1954-1966. On May 26, 1969, the Court determined that the Attorney General was the proper representative of a statewide class which included all members of the public who purchased the Aureomycin, Terramycin and tetracycline products of those companies in the State during the stated period.

The companies, while denying liability, have made a nationwide offer of 100 million dollars in settlement of all claims that any State or local governmental entity, drug wholesaler, retail pharmacist or member of the consuming public within the United States or Puerto Rico might have against them arising from purchases of broad spectrum antibiotic products during the stated period. On behalf of the State and the governmental entities and consuming public within the State, your Attorney General has elected to participate in that settlement subject to the establishment of appropriate allocations of this fund under supervision of the Court.

Now, therefore, take notice:

1. If you have purchased any of these drugs within the period 1954-1966:
 - a) The Court will exclude you from the class represented by the Attorney General if you request exclusion in writing addressed to the undersigned at P.O. Box 738, Bronx, New York 10451, and postmarked not later than August 1, 1969. If you elect to be excluded from the class, you will be free to pursue on your own behalf whatever legal rights you may have.

b) If you do not request exclusion from the class by August 1, 1969, you will be included in such class and any judgment, whether favorable or not, including any judgment approving any settlement of this action, will be binding upon you.

2. If you do not request exclusion from the class by August 1, 1969:

a) You may make a claim to receive directly a share as approved by the Court of any funds received by the Attorney General as representative of the members of the consuming public within the State. In order to make such a claim you must file with the undersigned at P.O. Box 738, Bronx, New York 10451 by August 16, 1969, either a verified statement or a statement certified by your local pharmacist or other supplier showing by year the total dollar amount of the Aureomycin, Terramycin and tetracycline products purchased by you; the name of each such product and the name and address of the pharmacy or other place where each such product was purchased; and if you have been reimbursed on account of such purchases, by whom and how much. Your statement must include your residence or post office address and you may later be required to produce written proof of your purchases.

b) If you do not make an individual claim by August 16, 1969, that will constitute an authorization to the Attorney General to utilize whatever money he may recover as your representative for the benefit of the citizens of your State in such manner as the Court may direct.

3. If you do not request exclusion from the class but prefer in connection with your individual claim to be represented by your own counsel rather than by the Attorney General, you may enter an appearance through your counsel but not later than August 1, 1969.

Clerk of the United States District Court
Southern District of New York

Tetracycline products are sold under the following names among others: Achromycin, Miconin, Panalga, Panmycin, Polycycline, Stetcin, Tetracylin and Tetrex.

The government in early March began an experimental program giving free food stamps to families with less than $30 monthly income in two South Carolina counties. This was a turnabout in a long-standing government policy which required some payment from any families receiving the stamps.

During the past year the Agriculture Department had reduced the requirements for the extremely poor so that a family of four could pay $2 a month and receive stamps for $58 worth of food. But on a national average food-stamp recipients in all eligible income ranges receive an average of $10 in coupons for $6.

States now set their own guidelines for determining eligibility for the stamps, but the Senate committee reportedly has agreed to change this by giving the Agriculture Department authority to specify the requirements.

The committee also was said to have recommended increasing federal food stamp financing from the present $340 million annually to $1.5 billion by 1971. The Senate already has adopted a resolution authorizing $750 million to be spent on the stamps in the new fiscal year starting Tuesday.

The administration had proposed that $610 million be provided for the stamp program in the 1970 fiscal year.

439 Coast Guard Cadets In Training

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP) — The Coast Guard Academy Monday will open its doors to 439 new cadets, the largest entering class in the history of the academy.

The cadets begin their training more than two months before most college freshmen. The incoming class, larger than the school's total enrollment in 1955, will bring the cadet population to more than 900 for the first time.

Ohio Guard To Loan Vehicle To Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Safety Director Joseph F. McManamon has worked out an agreement with the Ohio National Guard for loan of an armored personnel carrier to use as a rescue vehicle during riot situations.

Licavoli Petition Heard By Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Attorneys for convicted slayer Thomas Licavoli contended in federal court Monday that witnesses were coerced into testifying against the former gangster and that publicity surrounding the 1934 case prevented a fair trial.

The arguments were presented in support of a habeas corpus petition for Licavoli, who was convicted of four gangland murders in Toledo. The petition is similar to one rejected by a state appellate court.

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice to Consumers of Certain Broad Spectrum Antibiotics

The State of Ohio, through its Attorney General, Paul W. Brown, has pending a legal action in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against certain drug companies (Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc., American Cyanamid Company, Bristol-Myers Company, Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation (Squibb) and The Upjohn Company) alleging that those companies violated the antitrust laws in the sale of certain of their broad spectrum antibiotic products within the period 1954-1966. On May 26, 1969, the Court determined that the Attorney General was the proper representative of a statewide class which included all members of the public who purchased the Aureomycin, Terramycin and tetracycline products of those companies in the State during the stated period.

The companies, while denying liability, have made a nationwide offer of 100 million dollars in settlement of all claims that any State or local governmental entity, drug wholesaler, retail pharmacist or member of the consuming public within the United States or Puerto Rico might have against them arising from purchases of broad spectrum antibiotic products during the stated period. On behalf of the State and the governmental entities and consuming public within the State, your Attorney General has elected to participate in that settlement subject to the establishment of appropriate allocations of this fund under supervision of the Court.

Now, therefore, take notice:

1. If you have purchased any of these drugs within the period 1954-1966:

a) The Court will exclude you from the class represented by the Attorney General if you request exclusion in writing addressed to the undersigned at P.O. Box 738, Bronx, New York 10451, and postmarked not later than August 1, 1969; if you elect to be excluded from the class, you will be free to pursue on your own behalf whatever legal rights you may have.

b) If you do not request exclusion from the class by August 1, 1969, you will be included in such class and any judgment, whether favorable or not, including any judgment approving any settlement of this action, will be binding upon you.

2. If you do not request exclusion from the class by August 1, 1969:

a) You may make a claim to receive directly a share as approved by the Court of any funds received by the Attorney General as representative of the members of the consuming public within the State. In order to make such a claim you must file with the undersigned at P.O. Box 738, Bronx, New York 10451 by August 16, 1969, either a verified statement or a statement certified by your local pharmacist or other supplier showing by year the total dollar amount of the Aureomycin, Terramycin and tetracycline products purchased by you; the name of each such product and the name and address of the pharmacy or other place where each such product was purchased; and if you have been reimbursed on account of such purchases, by whom and how much. Your statement must include your residence or post office address and you may later be required to produce written proof of your purchases; or

b) If you do not make an individual claim by August 16, 1969, that will constitute an authorization to the Attorney General to utilize whatever money he may recover as your representative for the benefit of the citizens of your State in such manner as the Court may direct.

3. If you do not request exclusion from the class but prefer in connection with your individual claim to be represented by your own counsel rather than by the Attorney General, you may enter an appearance through your counsel but not later than August 1, 1969.

Clerk of the United States District Court Southern District of New York P.O. Box 738, Bronx, N.Y. 10451

Tetracycline products are sold under the following names among others: Aureomycin, Mycristin, Panalba, Panmycin, Polycycline, Stelcin, Tetracycline. If you reside outside the State, send your claim to P.O. Box 752, Bronx, New York 10451.

The Attorney General of your State will forward claims on account of purchases made outside the State to the Attorney General of the states in which such purchases were made, provided such states are participating in the settlement.

Red Cross Kicked Out Of Nigeria

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Nigeria stunned relief officials Monday by declaring the government is assuming responsibility for aid efforts on both sides of the civil war and that the International Committee of the Red Cross is no longer authorized to appeal for and accept donations on behalf of Nigeria.

The announcement was made by the government's commissioner for information and labor, Chief Anthony Enahoro, at a special meeting attended by representatives of more than 20 relief agencies, including Bernhard Frey, a member of the governing body of the International Red Cross.

Frey, who appeared shaken by the announcement, refused to comment, but other relief officials called the statement a "bombshell" and said "this is the worst possible thing."

There was no immediate comment from secessionist Biafra, which depends heavily on relief for its existence. In a recent statement, however, it rejected accepting supplies brought through federal ports or airfields.

In his statement Enahoro said: "Nigerians as a people have always been proud of the fact that Nigeria feeds itself. Nigeria is determined to continue to feed itself."

The new approach means a virtual blockade of Biafra, now down to 3,000 square miles, with an estimated population of three million to four million.

Nigeria has long maintained an announced economic blockade, which remains in force, but some reports have said arms and equipment flights have slipped in among the relief flights to Uli airstrip.

Independent Ohio Colleges Split $2 Million

By SAUL DANIELS
Associated Press Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Thirty-four small independent Ohio colleges split almost $2 million in gifts from industry this month.

The schools, none with an enrollment of more than 2,525 students are all members of the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges. The Foundation, which has headquarters in Columbus, refers to these non-state-supported colleges as "Custodians of Excellence."

The Foundation is one of 38 regional and state organizations which also function as central fund-raisers for schools not dependent upon tax aid.

The Independent College Funds of America in New York City acts as a central clearing house for national functions and fund-raising ideas for the member foundations, according to Martha Helm, assistant to the executive director of the OFIC. It also distributes money given as gifts by national organizations to the member organizations, she said.

Presidents of each of the 35 colleges in the OFIC are responsible for fund raising for the benefit of the general membership. Funds are solicited, Miss Helm said, through both mail and personal contact with leaders of Ohio business and industry.

The fund drive is supervised by the OFIC. It distributes grants to members each year after May 31 according to a special formula.

That formula designates that funds be divided 60 per cent equally among the members and 40 per cent in proportion to full-time undergraduate enrollment. These funds are only to help cover operating expenses, Miss Helm said.

Companies are willing to donate money to the colleges, Miss Helm said, because they realize that state taxes support the large schools and they consider supporting the non-tax funded schools as their responsibility.

Since its creation in 1951, the number of contributors has multiplied vastly. More than 200 additional companies made contributions between 1967 and 1968, and more than 750 have given donations for longer than 10 years.

In 1951 the OFIC had 86 contributors on its rolls. Today, the rolls list almost 2,000.

Between 1961 and 1969 the income of the Foundation has grown from $197,165 to $1,709,013. Money donated to the foundation since its inception now totals $18,034,079.

The OFIC says that businessmen view grants to the independent colleges as an investment with both immediate and long range effects. There is an immediate tax saving for contributors while the future buying power of the college graduate is increased.

The Foundation also says that the expanding number of graduates to meet society's demands is "a good investment at all times."

Students in Foundation member schools pay approximately 70 per cent of the cost of their own education. OFIC figures show that this balance is high when compared with data from national surveys of college tuition. The remaining portion of the cost has been traditionally contributed by persons interested in improving and maintaining education. The OFIC tries to tap these individuals and companies in the industrial world.

OFIC members were joined June 1 by Rio Grande College. Other members include: Antioch, Ashland, Baldwin - Wallace, Bluffton, Capital, Dayton, DeSales, Denison, Edgewood, Findlay, Heidelberg, Hiram, Kenyon and Lake Erie.

Additional members are: Malone, Marietta, Mary Manse, Mount St. Joseph, Mount Union, Muskingum, Notre Dame, Oberlin, Ohio Dominican, Ohio Northern, Ohio Wesleyan, Otterbein, St. John, Steubenville, Ursuline, Western, Wilberforce, Wilmington, Wittenberg and Wooster.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The past television season was one in which the commercial networks vied to bring original "meaningful drama" to the adult audience. Next season, it appears, will be the one in which they will share the wealth with the child viewers.

NBC already has announced plans for seven special programs, each an original with a sizeable budget. CBS, which set up a "Children's Hour" as a sort of son of "CBS Playhouse," announced Monday details for three Saturday morning specials and there may even be one more if suitable original material can be found.

By now it is well established that Saturday morning on the networks is kiddy time. For a considerable period, each of the three networks filled the hours with solid blocks of cartoons—mostly old short subjects originally made for theatres and more recently with new animated programs.

The generally shoddy quality of those old TV programs for children has been increasingly a matter of criticism. It is logical to presume that current network efforts to upgrade the broadcasts is a response to the criticism.

Network executives prefer, however, to say "it was just something that we felt should be done," or that it has become important to "correct the balance of programming."

Whatever the reason, there has been, at least by CBS and NBC, a marked change in the type of shows seen by upwards of 15 million children up to the age of 13 who watch television Saturday mornings.

By next season, NBC's morning lineup will lean heavily on fantasy. CBS will go in, as it has this season, for comedy. Not long ago, the cartoons that were run and rerun in that category euphemistically called

"adventure," but they were criticized for their violence.

One Saturday morning last March, an estimated 14 million television sets were tuned to stations affiliated with one or another of three networks. CBS's "Archie" and NBC's rerun of "The Flintstones" were competing with ABC's "Spiderman" for attention.

That represents a lot of children, even if there had been only one child watching each set. It adds up to an audience discovered long ago by manufacturers of such products as toys, cereals, candy, peanut butter and dairy products.

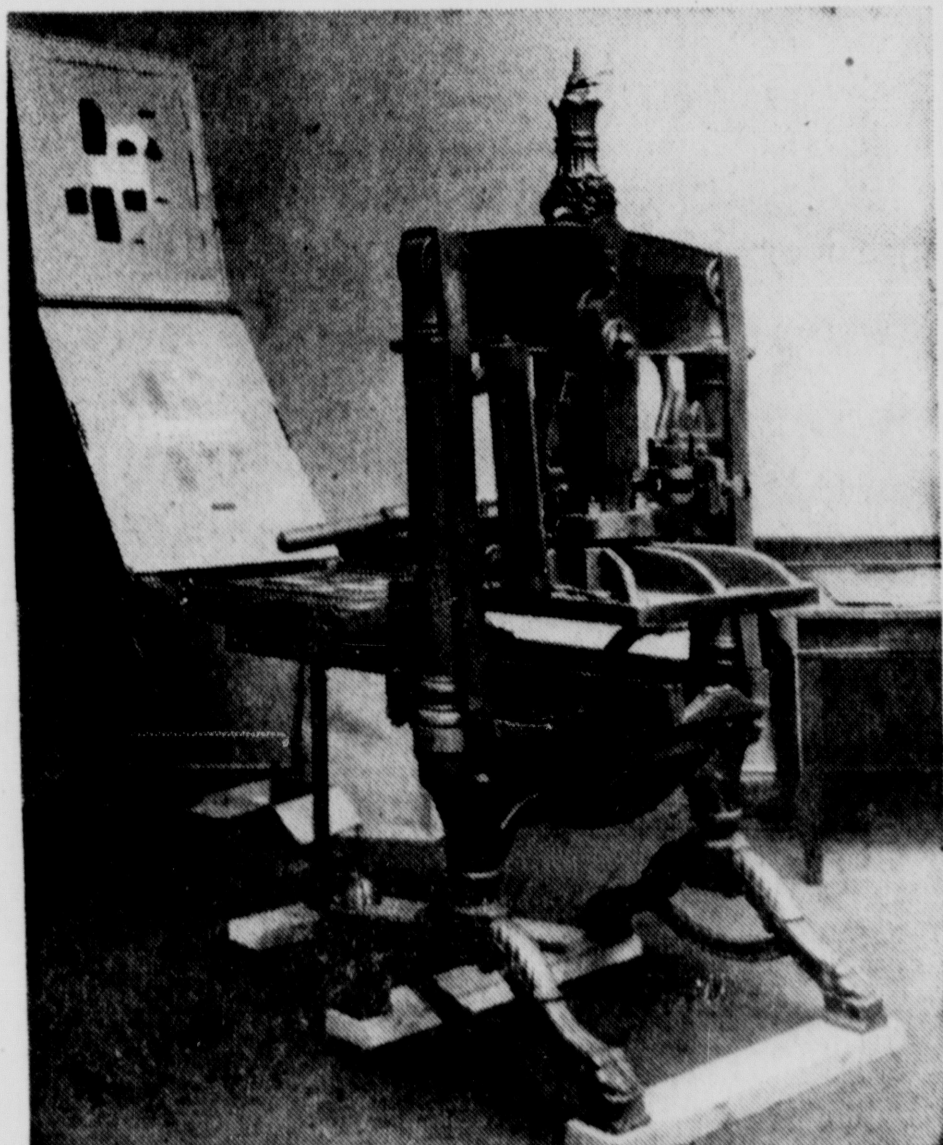

Swiss Reject Membership In United Nations

BERN Switzerland (AP) — Switzerland is not ready to join the United Nations, the government announced Monday in a 168 page report that took over a year to prepare.

Foreign Minister Willy Spuehler, who presented the report, said the Swiss people have remained "sceptical or indifferent" toward the United Nations and the effects of U.N. membership on Switzerland's neutral status "have not been clearly defined."

Swiss law would require a nationwide referendum on the issue. Spuehler said he was convinced voters would reject membership in the world body, "which could be misinterpreted and jeopardize our international standing."

However, he promised intensified Swiss cooperation with the United Nations and its specialized agencies. "Neutrality does not mean isolation and introversion," he said.

Red Cross Kicked Out Of Nigeria

LAGOS, Nigeria (AP) — Nigeria stunned relief officials Monday by declaring the government is assuming responsibility for aid efforts on both sides of the civil war and that the International Committee of the Red Cross is no longer authorized to appeal for and accept donations on behalf of Nigeria.

The announcement was made by the government's commissioner for information and labor, Chief Anthony Enahoro, at a special meeting attended by representatives of more than 20 relief agencies, including Bernhard Frey, a member of the governing body of the International Red Cross.

Frey, who appeared shaken by the announcement, refused to comment, but other relief officials called the statement a "bombshell" and said "this is the worst possible thing."

There was no immediate comment from secessionist Biafra, which depends heavily on relief for its existence. In a recent statement, however, it rejected accepting supplies brought through federal ports or airfields.

In his statement Enahoro said: "Nigerians as a people have always been proud of the fact that Nigeria feeds itself. Nigeria is determined to continue to feed itself."

The new approach means a virtual blockade of Biafra, now down to 3,000 square miles, with an estimated population of three million to four million.

Nigeria has long maintained an announced economic blockade, which remains in force, but some reports have said arms and equipment flights have slipped in among the relief flights to Uli airstrip.

Independent Ohio Colleges Split $2 Million

By SAUL DANIELS
Associated Press Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Thirty-four small independent Ohio colleges split almost $2 million in gifts from industry this month.

The schools, none with an enrollment of more than 2,525 students are all members of the Ohio Foundation of Independent Colleges. The Foundation, which has headquarters in Columbus, refers to these non-state-supported colleges as "Custodians of Excellence."

The Foundation is one of 38 regional and state organizations which also function as central fund-raisers for schools not dependent upon tax aid.

The Independent College Funds of America in New York City acts as a central clearing house for national functions and fund-raising ideas for the member foundations, according to Martha Helm, assistant to the executive director of the OFIC. It also distributes money given as gifts by national corporations to the member organizations, she said.

Presidents of each of the 35 colleges in the OFIC are responsible for fund raising for the benefit of the general membership. Funds are solicited, Miss Helm said, through both mail and personal contact with leaders of Ohio business and industry.

The fund drive is supervised by the OFIC. It distributes grants to members each year after May 31 according to a special formula.

That formula designates that funds be divided 60 per cent equally among the members and 40 per cent in proportion to full-time undergraduate enrollment. These funds are only to help cover operating expenses, Miss Helm said.

Companies are willing to donate money to the colleges, Miss Helm said, because they realize that state taxes support the large schools and they consider supporting the non-tax funded schools as their responsibility.

Since its creation in 1951, the number of contributors has multiplied vastly. More than 200 additional companies made contributions between 1967 and 1968, and more than 750 have given donations for longer than 10 years.

In 1951 the OFIC had 86 contributors on its rolls. Today, the rolls list almost 2,000. Between 1961 and 1968 the income of the Foundation has grown from $197,165 to $1,709,013. Money donated to the foundation since its inception now totals $18,034,079.

The OFIC says that businessmen view grants to the independent colleges as an investment with both immediate and long range effects. There is an immediate tax saving for contributors while the future buying power of the college graduate is increased.

The Foundation also says that the expanding number of graduates to meet society's demands is "a good investment at all times."

Students in Foundation member schools pay approximately 70 per cent of the cost of their own education. OFIC figures show that this balance is high when compared with data from national surveys of college tuition. The remaining portion of the cost has been traditionally contributed by persons interested in improving and maintaining education. The OFIC tries to tap these individuals and companies in the industrial world.

OFIC members were joined June 1 by Rio Grande College. Other members include: Antioch, Ashland, Baldwin - Wallace, Bluffton, Capital, Dayton, DeSales, Denison, Edgewood, Findlay, Heidelberg, Hiram, Kenyon and Lake Erie.

Additional members are: Malone, Marietta, Mary Manse, Mount St. Joseph, Mount Union, Muskingum, Notre Dame, Oberlin, Ohio Dominican, Ohio Northern, Ohio Wesleyan, Otterbein, St. John, Steubenville, Ursuline, Western, Wilberforce, Wilmington, Wittenberg and Wooster.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The past television season was one in which the commercial networks vied to bring original "meaningful drama" to the adult audience. Next season, it appears, will be the one in which they will share the wealth with the child viewers.

NBC already has announced plans for seven special programs, each an original with a sizeable budget. CBS, which set up a "Children's Hour" as a sort of son of "CBS Playhouse," announced Monday details for three Saturday morning specials and there may even be one more if suitable original material can be found.

By now it is well established that Saturday morning on the networks is kiddy time. For a considerable period, each of the three networks filled the hours with solid blocks of cartoons—mostly old short subjects originally made for theatres and more recently with new animated programs.

The generally shoddy quality of those old TV programs for children has been increasingly a matter of criticism. It is logical to presume that current network efforts to upgrade the broadcasts is a response to the criticism.

Network executives prefer, however, to say "it was just something that we felt should be done," or that it has become important to "correct the balance of programming."

Whatever the reason, there has been, at least by CBS and NBC, a marked change in the type of shows seen by upwards of 15 million children up to the age of 13 who watch television Saturday mornings.

By next season, NBC's morning lineup will lean heavily on fantasy. CBS will go in, as it has this season, for comedy. Not long ago, the cartoons that were run and rerun were in that category euphemistically called

"adventure," but they were criticized for their violence.

One Saturday morning last March, an estimated 14 million television sets were tuned to stations affiliated with one or another of three networks. CBS's "Archie" and NBC's rerun of "The Flintstones" were competing with ABC's "Spiderman" for attention.

That represents a lot of children, even if there had been only one child watching each set. It adds up to an audience discovered long ago by manufacturers of such products as toys, cereals, candy, peanut butter and dairy products.

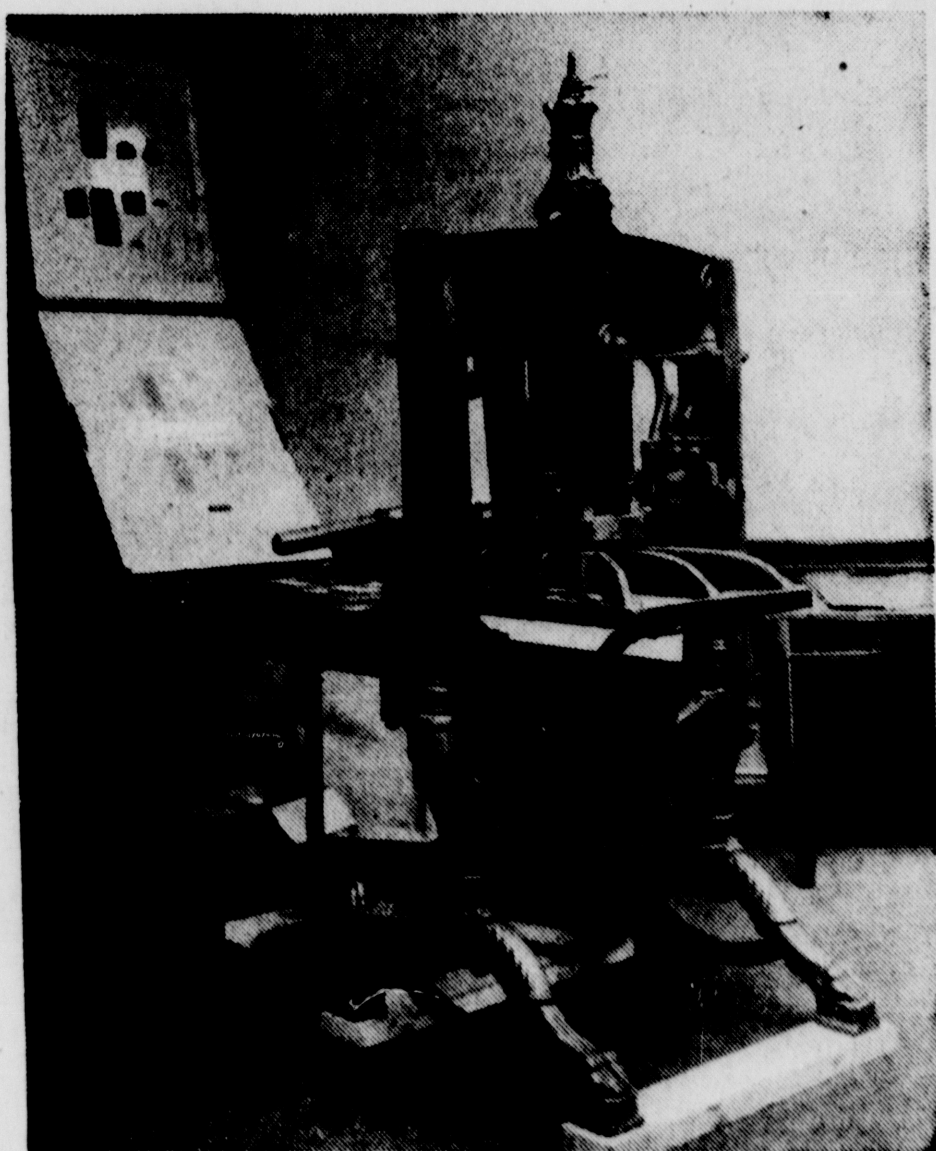

Swiss Reject Membership In United Nations

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — Switzerland is not ready to join the United Nations, the government announced Monday in a 168 page report that took over a year to prepare.

Foreign Minister Willy Spuehler, who presented the report, said the Swiss people have remained "sceptical or indifferent" toward the United Nations and the effects of U.N. membership on Switzerland's neutral status "have not been clearly defined."

Swiss law would require a nationwide referendum on the issue. Spuehler said he was convinced voters would reject membership in the world body, "which could be misinterpreted and jeopardize our international standing."

However, he promised intensified Swiss cooperation with the United Nations and its specialized agencies. "Neutrality does not mean isolation and introversion," he said.

Phils, Minus Allen, Beat Pirates

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dear Richie... wherever you are:
Don't call us; we'll call you!
Love,
Bob Skinner

Skinner, of course, wouldn't think of sending such a message to Richie Allen... even if he knew where to send it. The Philadelphia manager misses his runaway superstar. So do all the Phillies.

They just don't show it. The Phillies reeled off their seventh consecutive victory Monday night, trimming Pittsburgh 4-2 behind the hitting of Mike Ryan and Johnny Briggs. Allen vanished into the night a week ago at New York and the Phils, beset by injuries before his disappearance, lost both ends of a doubleheader to the Mets. They haven't been beaten since then.

While Skinner waited in vain for a phone call from Allen Monday, the Phils placed outfielder Johnny Callison, their only other standout, on the 21-day disabled list with a severe pulled groin muscle.

Then they struggled past the Pirates as Ryan clubbed a two-run homer, Briggs delivered a pair of key singles and reliever John Boomer pitched out of a bases-loaded bind in the ninth inning, saving the victory for left-hander Woody Fryman.

Elsewhere, Atlanta's Phil Niekro became the majors' first 13-game winner with a 9-4 nod over Cincinnati; Los Angeles hipped Houston 7-1 on Claude Osteen's four-hitter; New York buried St. Louis 10-2 on a three-hitter by Jim McAndrew; Montreal upended the Chicago Cubs

5-2 and San Francisco bounced San Diego 6-1.

The Phillies staked former Pirate Fryman to a 4-0 lead with the help of Ryan's ninth homer, a fourth-inning shot that followed Larry Hise's triple. The Pirates got on run back in the seventh, then chased Fryman with four hits in the ninth. But Boomer came on and retired pinch hitter Willie Stargell on a pop to second for the last out.

Briggs singled across an unearned run in the first and singled, stole second and scored on Rick Joseph's single in the sixth.

Niekro, 13-5, survived 11 Cincinnati hits and four wild pitches—one short of the major league record—as the Braves hung one-half game behind first place Los Angeles in the West Division race.

Hank Aaron drilled his 21st homer, a three-run shot that keyed Atlanta's six-run third-inning explosion. Niekro opened the third with a single and doubled home two runs in the fifth. Osteen, 10-6, retired the first 14 Astros he faced and held them hitless until the seventh inning, when a walk and one-out singles by Doug Rader and Marty Martinez ruined his shutout bid. Wes Parker doubled home the second of two first-inning runs and singled to ignite another two-run rally in the third.

McAndrew, 2-2, weathered bases-empty homers by Joe Torre and Dal Maxfield after the Mets struck for six first-inning runs—the last three on Jerry Grote's first homer of the season. Art Shamsky also homered for New York as the sinking Cardinals dropped their fourth straight.

Coco Laboy poked two singles, driving in three runs, and Montreal stopped the Cubs behind right-hander Howie Reed. The loss cut Chicago's East Division lead over second place New York to seven games.

Mike McCormick scattered seven hits and Willie Mays, Willie McCovey and Ron Hunt knocked in two runs apiece, leading the Giants past the Padres, who have lost three games in a row, 14 of their last 15 and 22 of 25 since June 6.

Bengals Trade Tom Smiley, Get Eric Crabtree

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Bengals of the American Football League traded fullback Tom Smiley to the Denver Broncos Monday for wide receiver Eric Crabtree.

Bengals general manager and coach Paul Brown said the trade was made in an effort to bolster Cincinnati's pass receiving corps.

Crabtree, who played his college football at Pittsburgh, has been with the Broncos three years. Last fall he led the team's pass receivers with 35 receptions for 631 yards and five touchdowns. He stands 5-11 and weighs 182.

Smiley was drafted by the Bengals last year from Lamar Tech. He is 6-1 and weighs 225 pounds and gained 146 yards in 63 ball-carrying attempts in 1968.

Caponi, Whitworth Top Money Winners

CINCINNATI (AP)—Donna Caponi and Kathy Whitworth made the biggest gains Sunday among top money winners on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour.

LPGA headquarters reported today the $5,000 Miss Caponi picked up winning the Women's Open championship at Pensacola, Fla., Sunday, boosted her from seventh to fifth in the top 10 and she now has $17,771.

Miss Whitworth, the tour's leading money winner, finished third in the Open and the $1,500 she won pushed her lead over second-place Carol Mann to more than $7,000.

Weatherman Wins Over Washington

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland got its first victory over the Washington Senators Monday night, but the victory belonged to the weatherman, not the Cleveland Indians.

The two teams were rained out Monday, setting up a two-night doubleheader tonight at Municipal Stadium with the Indians trying to avenge six straight early season losses to Ted Williams' Senators.

The rainout forces the Indians to play their fifth doubleheader since June 20, making the advantage of the day of relaxation questionable.

American Legion, Elks Win Little League Major Tilts

American Legion fought from behind all the way to top Bingman's Drugs 8-7 and BPOE Elks swamped Coca-Cola 6-1 in Little League major action Monday night.

Bingman's carried a 4-3 lead into the third inning, but couldn't stop a Legion rally that tallied four runs. In the fourth, Bingman's rallied for three counters and a tie score. The Legion scored the winning run in the fifth inning, blanking Bingman's over the final two frames.

Rick Ramsey pitched the first two innings for American Legion. He was relieved by Jeff Hawks, who finished the game and is credited with the win. They allowed six hits.

Brent Mancini went all the way on the mound for Bingman's. He allowed 14 hits.

MIKE Diltz collected a triple, double and two singles to cap a perfect night at the plate for American Legion. Jeff Hawks added a double and two singles in three tries. Joe Smith powered a double and Tyler Burns had a double.

Jeff Keener paced Bingman's at the plate with a double and a single in four times at bat. Rock Edgington added a double. The win gives the Legion sole possession of first place in the league with a 4-1 mark.

Randy Thomas' three-hitter enabled Elks to beat Coke in other major league action. Thomas walked two and fanned nine in the one-sided tilt. Coke denied him for a run in the third inning on an error.

Perry Hoskins went all the way for Coke on the mound. He walked two batters and fanned nine, while allowing seven hits.

THOMAS aided his own cause at the plate, going three for three with a double. Mark Hoffman also collected two singles and a double. Jack Cradlebaugh cracked a double.

Jeff Spires hit a double for the only extra base blow for the Coke team.

The win gives Elks third place in the league with a 3-2 record. They trail American Legion at 4-1 and the Herald at 3-1.

Stump Wins Hobby Heat At Atomic Speedway

Don Stump sped to a first place finish in the second heat of the Hobby Stock class at Atomic Speedway Saturday night after Jim Lanman was barely edged out for the win in the first heat.

Stump and Ronnie Allen finished three-four in the Hobby feature, with Lanman finishing 16th.

Jim Meeker of Chillicothe became the second driver with double victories in the modified division, but he had to come from behind to regain the lead from Junior Smalley at the finish line.

Bob Stanhope, also of Chillicothe, took the lead on the fifth lap to become the second driver with a pair of wins in the hobby stocks features.

Meeker also had taken the lead on the fifth lap in the modified main event after Jim Luebbert of Cincinnati and Joe Frazier (subbing in No. 22 for the highway accident-injured Don Adams of Nelsonville) had set the pace for a pair of laps each.

Nosed out of winning his first feature of the season after going back in the No. 13 car, Smalley managed to pass Meeker on the 22nd lap and they battled it out down to the finish with the veteran Chillicothean just edging past for the checkered flag. Audie Swartz of Franklin Furnace, the only other double feature winner of the year, was third.

Early Teal Season Set

Ohio waterfowl hunters will have the opportunity to hunt blue-winged and green-winged teal during a special early teal season this year, set for September 12 through 20.

"This special season will provide additional recreation afforded by early teal flights through Ohio," said Fred E. Morr, Director, Ohio Department of Natural Resources. "Hunting hours will be from sunrise to sunset and a daily bag limit of four and eight in possession after the first day will be in effect."

In making the announcement of the early season to all states in the central and Mississippi flyways, Nobel E. Buell, Acting Director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, said "an early teal season, as we've recommended, and based on our experience gained from the experimental teal season, contains the restrictions necessary to protect the continental populations of teal and other ducks, yet will continue the policy of maximizing the recreational potential of relatively lightly harvested duck populations."

Applicable Ohio and Federal laws will apply during the season, including possession of an Ohio hunting license, and a valid waterfowl stamp by hunters age 16 or older.

Ward's, Blue Ribbon Win In Minors

In Little League Minor action Monday night, undefeated Ward's Market took Blue Ribbon Dairy, 7-4 and the Savings Bank topped IOOF 11-6.

Tim Davis started on the mound for the winners and fanned two, walked four and gave up one hit. He was relieved in the second inning by Tim Richie and Bob Branick relieved him in the fourth. Together they gave up ten walks and four hits as they whiffed nine. Wolford, for the Dairymen, gave up 11 hits, walked three and struck out eight.

Rick Allen hit the only extra base for the losers with a triple in the second stanza. Randy Dean connected with a double for the winners.

The two teams matched each other for the first three innings, each scoring one in the first, two in the second and one in the third. Ward's scored three runs in the bottom of the fourth while Blue Ribbon failed to score again. Blue Ribbon's four runs came on five hits and they committed eight errors. The league co-leaders had 12 hits for their seven runs and they made three miscues in the tilt.

BIFF Bumgarner was the hero of the Savings Bank win over IOOF. Bumgarner hit two home runs and a triple in four trips to the plate. Jamie Hickey also hit a three bagger for the winners. Reynold Williams' triple was the only extra base hit for IOOF.

Savings Bank took a 2-1 lead in the first inning, added six in the second, allowed IOOF two in the third, fanned one in the fourth and two in the sixth while the losers got three more. Savings Bank had 11 runs on six hits and three errors. The Odd Fellows tallied six runs with four hits and made one mistake.

Bob Kint went all the way on the mound for the Bankers, giving up four hits and seven walks while whiffing three. Brad Allison pitched the entire game for the Odd Fellows and allowed six hits and eight walks. Allison fanned 12 batters in the tilt.

FOP Edges Knights, 9-7, In 7 Innings

The Fraternal Order of Police topped the Knights of Columbus in the only Mosquito league action of the night at the Atwater diamond, 9-7, in an extra inning game.

Jim Edgington pitched the first three innings of the tilt for FOP, giving up two hits, walking four and whiffing nine. Kevin Woltz pitched the last four innings, allowing four hits, walking four and whiffing nine.

Minnesota And Kansas City Win Games

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Harmon Killebrew has driven in twice as many runs as Lou Piniella, but to Kansas City fans Piniella is their Killebrew.

Both players figured prominently in their teams' victories Monday night as Minnesota whipped the Chicago White Sox 7-3 and Kansas City edged California 2-1.

Ernie Green Quits Playing; Now A Coach

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Running back Ernie Green of the Cleveland Browns has announced his retirement as a player and his appointment to the Browns' staff as offensive backfield coach.

Green, a member of the National Football League Browns since 1962, sustained a serious knee injury in the team's pre-season opener at Los Angeles last August. He did not return to action until Oct. 20 against Baltimore and carried the ball only 41 times the remainder of the season.

Along with his coaching duties, the 30-year-old Green will remain as assistant vice-provost for student services at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

The Browns also announced the appointment of 24-year NFL coach Mike Nixon to a special assignment of scouting veteran players of both the NFL and American Football League at games and on films. Nixon was formerly head coach of the Washington Redskins and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Browns also announced the hiring of former Philadelphia Eagles player Howard Keys as an assistant to Paul Bixler, the club's director of player personnel; the election of general manager Harold Sauerbrei as a vice-president; the appointment of business manager Bob Brodhead to club controller; and the appointment of Ben Fieger, an assistant to club owner Art Modell, as business manager and travel coordinator.

Killebrew collected three hits and drove in three runs for Minnesota while Piniella drove in both runs, the second with a ninth-inning homer, for Kansas City.

The only other scheduled American League game, Washington at Cleveland, was rained out.

Piniella, whose runs batted in against California gave him 35 for the season, was a relative latecomer to the new Royals, but he became an instant hit with the fans.

For example, on opening day he lashed a double and three singles in the Royals' 12-inning, 4-3 victory over Minnesota. The next day he singled home the winning run in another 4-3 triumph, this time in 17 innings.

It was quite a debut for a guy the Royals acquired shortly before in a trade with the league's other expansion team, Seattle. The Pilots had drafted him from Cleveland.

"I think it helps a player to have the fans with him," the 25-year-old outfielder says. "I was glad to come over to the Kansas City organization. I had heard good things about it even before the trade was made. I'm very happy here."

Piniella, who had played in only 21 major league games before this season, is one good reason why the Royals have managed to stay out of the cellar, the usual place for an expansion team.

Against the Angels, who are in last place in the AL's West Division, Piniella drove in a run with a sacrifice fly in the fourth inning following singles by Mike Flore and Bob Oliver.

The Angels tied it in the seventh on Rick Reichardt's run-producing single, but in the ninth, with two out and a 3-2 count, Piniella socked a Rudy May pitch over the left field fence for his seventh homer.

Killebrew raised his league-leading RBI total to 70, driving in a first-inning run with a single and climaxing a five-run explosion in the ninth inning with a two-run single. He also singled and scored the tie-breaking run in the seventh on John Roseboro's double.

Rod Carew doubled in two Twins' runs in the ninth, and Bill Melton homered for the White Sox in the last of the ninth.

Ladies Softball At Chillicothe

The Fraternal Order of Eagles Little League team of Chillicothe, is sponsoring a ladies slow-pitch double elimination tournament the weekend of July 25, 26 and 27.

All games will be played at the Chillicothe Veterans Hospital Stadium.

The entry fee is $25 and all proceeds will go toward buying new uniforms for the little league team.

There will be trophies given for first and second place, the highest batting average of the tournament, the most valuable player and a ten woman all-star team individual trophies.

Deadline for entries will be July 13, and information concerning the drawings will then be mailed. Mail entry checks to Larry Lewis, 17 Stanhope Drive, Chillicothe.

Awesome Cincinnati Bats Bring Memories Of 1956

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, headed by five players not previously known for exceptional slugging prowess, are giving opposing pitchers and managers nightmares this year. Most Reds' hurlers cannot wait to pitch because of the hitting and comeback ability.

Spurred by Lee May, Tony Perez, Bobby Tolan, John Bench and Alex Johnson, the Reds boast an all-around attack stronger than that of the awesome 1956 squad which tied a National League record with 221 homers.

The Reds pace the league in homers with 83 and batting average with .288. Each of the five plus Pete Rose is batting over .300 and no National League team since before 1945 has hit as high for the season as the Reds are now.

The league record is .319 by the old New York Giants in 1930. May, whose 22 homers top Cincinnati batters, thinks the Reds' "chances are good" of breaking the home run record.

"We have a lot of capable home run hitters in the line-up all the way. We also have some pitchers who have hit homers."

Win Dea Wins
Scioto Downs Race
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Win Dea, driven by Dick Edwards, came from nine lengths back to win the featured race at Scioto Downs Monday night.

The pacer, posting its first win in four starts this season, paid $10.20, $6.40 and $4.00. Nauty Jane, finishing second by two lengths, returned $10.20 and $3.80, while Little Berry was worth $3.20 for show.

The 6-9 daily double combination of Pride Yates and Fairlawn Prince paid $15.40. The 2-5 quinnella was worth $10.80. A crowd of 4,916 wagered $177,693.

This is no accident

But you're our witness, anyway—to a piece-of demonstration of how quickly and easily Maverick can be taken apart and put together. We designed Maverick that way for a good reason. When you're paying by the hour for service or repairs, speed is important. And at times like this, nothing can beat a simple machine.

Most new cars are more and more complicated. And more expensive to care for. Maverick's so simple to service, you can do it yourself—if you really mean it about being independent.

You won't feel like an orphan either. Our Owner's Manual shows you how to handle all the routine service. You can tune and time your engine, change plugs and points, adjust the idle, the headlights, the handbrakes, do nearly 40 different service operations.

And if you crease a fender or crack a grille, you can almost smile. Maverick's front fenders bolt on and grilles are replaceable in minutes. And where time means money, fast means savings.

Stop in once every 36,000 miles for a lube job. Oil changes are 6,000 miles apart. (The leading import suggests oil changes twice as often and lube jobs every 6,000 miles.)

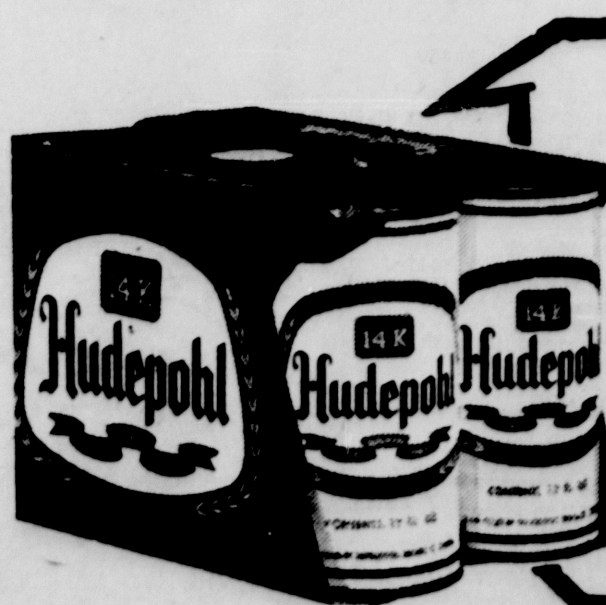

While still being simple, Maverick is big enough to take the whole family—without streaming luggage from the roof. It's small enough to park easily, and go light on gas. A 105-hp Six gives you real passing power. (You get 52 more horsepower than the leading import offers.) And the wider stance gives you a smoother ride, better handling and roadability.

It's no accident that Maverick is the hottest selling new car to come along in five years. We designed it that way. See it at your Ford Dealer's.

Siemiller Blasts Railroads: Retires As Machinists

WASHINGTON (AP) — P. L. "Roy" Siemiller, controversial leader of nationwide airline and railroad strikes, has retired—but not before throwing one last punch on behalf of his million-member union.

At the union's mandatory retirement age of 65, Siemiller today turned the presidency of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers over to Floyd E. Smith, 56, formerly a union vice president.

Siemiller, closing out his 40-year union career with record-breaking new contracts for some 38,000 airline mechanics, fired a blast charging the railroad industry with stalling negotiations covering 137,000 shop craft workers.

"The railroads are in good shape," Siemiller said Monday in an interview. "They've got money to burn but they are still using the old, antiquated approach to labor relations. They are using the Railway Labor Act to full advantage, delaying settlements."

Two years ago, Siemiller tangled with the White House, Congress, railroad management and sometimes with other labor leaders in sparking a paralyzing two-day nationwide rail strike—first in 20 years—that Congress ended with a special law and the first compulsory wage settlement in U.S. peacetime history.

And in 1966, the Machinists under Siemiller grounded all the planes of six major airlines for 43 days in the only nationwide airline strike in U.S. history. The strike was settled after the Machinists fended off efforts to pass a law to stop the walkout.

The Machinists in recent weeks have been wrapping up whopping new contracts with the airlines providing more than 30 per cent in wage hikes alone, plus fringe benefits, over three years.

Siemiller credited the 1966 airlines strike with paving the way for this year's big peaceful settlements that will bring mechanics base pay to $5.50 an hour.

He was fined $50 and $15 costs on the first charge and $50 plus costs on the second charge, with $25 of the fine suspended.

John F. May, 21, of Chillicothe, was charged by the Ohio State Patrol with reckless operation and having fictitious license plates.

He was found guilty of both charges and fined $15 plus $15 costs on the first and $50 and costs on the second. $25 of the second fine was suspended by Judge Lamb.

John L. Spears, 19, of Columbus, was charged with having no operators license. He was found guilty and fined $125.

James Smith, 64, S. Scioto St., forfeited $19 bond on the charge of speeding 70 miles per hour in a 60 mile zone.

Herbert Carroll, 122 Hayward Ave., forfeited a $24 bond on the charge of being intoxicated.

Robert LeMaster, 211 S. Scioto St., forfeited a $24 bond on the charge of speeding 50 miles per hour in a 35 mile zone.

Donna J. Allen, 304 E. Franklin St., forfeited a $24 bond on the charge of failure to stop at a stop sign.

Fred Brungs, 203 Huston St., was charged with intoxication and fined $10 plus $12 costs.

The court collected $748 from out of county motorists on bond forfeitures.

A get-acquainted, games evening is being planned for the families and friends of all local active duty servicemen in this area 8 p.m. Thursday at the YW-YMCA building Lancaster.

This group meets each month and selects a local serviceman to receive a box of gifts brought by those present and mails it to him.

In addition to this project they plan a bake sale in the near future to raise money to donate to the hospital ship USS Hope.

Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend and asked to bring an item suitable for mailing for the serviceman of the month.

good things happen to clothes.

washed with good Bruner water

Why wear out clothes in the washer? Good water washes give you brighter colors . . . cleaner work clothes with less soap and less work than you ever thought possible. And Bruner water is good water. There's an automatic Bruner model for city or well water. Your Bruner Good Water units eliminate unpleasant odors and tastes . . . even of chlorine . . . rust and iron, and soften too. Good water is really a family affair for washing . . . cooking and cleaning. The Bruner folks know—they've invented good water. For full details and free water analysis . . .

California Demos 'Break' State

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California began a new fiscal year without a budget today and Gov. Ronald Reagan flatly refused to accept an emergency bill to keep the state running for 30 days.

As a result, the nation's most populous state was plunged into unprecedented fiscal chaos. Salaries for state employees were cut off and Reagan asked them to work for free. State officials no longer had authority to pay wages or bills.

The Republican governor, at a 2 a.m. news conference, blamed Assembly Democrats led by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, a Reagan political rival.

"Blocking the budget for the state is the most irresponsible single act in the history of California state government," said Reagan.

The 39 Democrats are a minority in the 80-member Assembly but a two-third majority, or 54 votes, is needed for budget approval.

The Democrats are demanding in return for their votes a $400 million increase in aid to California's local school districts, and a tax relief package that would reduce property taxes on homeowners and increase income and other taxes.

Reagan has proposed a $105 million boost in local school aid, which was $1.3 billion last year.

Never before has the state lacked legal authorization to pay its bills, and there was no agreement as to what would happen to the government.

"There is no authorization for anyone to go to work," said Assemblyman Victor Vevsey, one of the house's fiscal leaders. The Finance Director Cosvar Weinberger has said that without a budget most state spending would stop.

Unruh, who is expected to challenge Reagan in the 1970 gubernatorial election, said legislative lawyers told him the legislature could easily pay back salaries. He predicted a settlement within two weeks and said, "There will be no fiscal chaos."

First, the Democrats refused to support a $6.37 billion budget. It failed on a 40-33 vote.

Then Unruh and Republican Assemblyman Frank Lantieri offered a $1.6 billion spending bill to finance most state operations for one month and give a year's money to certain local programs that require long-range funding.

It cleared the Assembly 54-14, but got delayed in the Senate in a maze of interhouse rivalry and partisanship.

Privately, Democrats consider the fight crucial for their hopes of winning control of the legislature and defeating Reagan in 1970.

Also involved in the dispute is a tax reform measure. Unruh says the one proposed by Regan fails to plug "tax loopholes" that favor major oil companies.

The Democrats are pressing to put on the June 1970 ballot an early version of a Reagan tax reform bill—one they believe would hurt Reagan politically. Reagan has submitted another plan.

The Democrats also say their plea for more school aid will count in their favor in next year's election.

Accord Sought On Lake Drilling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Lawmakers from four Lake Erie states agreed Monday to seek curtailment of off-shore drilling plans until the states can agree on a common policy for handling the situation.

Ohio House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess said the working agreement was adopted at a meeting in Ashtabula between legislators representing Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan and New York.

He said the four states will attempt to seek a common ground of agreement on off-shore oil and gas drilling rather than an interstate compact that would involve the federal government.

Heart Transplant Patient Nears Year As New Man

By EARLEEN FISHER
Associated Press Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A 44-year-old Indianapolis school teacher with a 17-year-old heart says he feels like "nothing's ever been changed."

America's longest surviving heart transplant recipient, Louis B. Russell Jr., is paneling his basement walls, bicycles regularly with his children, and recently climbed up on the roof of his two-story home for a repair job.

"A year ago, he says, he was in 'bad, bad shape.'"

That was before he entered the hospital at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond where on Aug. 24, 1968, he became the world's 34th heart transplant patient.

Russell resumed teaching industrial arts this spring.

He speaks before local clubs and statewide meetings in Indianapolis. He has made dozens of talks since last January and is booked through next February.

Russell said his checkup this month is an exploratory operation to see what condition the heart is in.

After being considered for the transplant last year, Russell talked with his wife and four children.

He decided that "if I didn't survive, I'd be asleep. I wouldn't know anything about it. And if I did or didn't survive, look at the millions of people we would have helped. It was a chance for me and a chance for them. I knew they didn't do this unless you're dying."

Russell added: "I am a Christian. I believe the doctors had a lot to do with this, but I believe God had a lot to do with it, too."

Phils, Minus Allen, Beat Pirates

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dear Richie... wherever you are:
Don't call us; we'll call you!
Love,
Bob Skinner

Skinner, of course, wouldn't think of sending such a message to Richie Allen... even if he knew where to send it. The Philadelphia manager misses his runaway superstar. So do all the Phillies.

They just don't show it. The Phillies reeled off their seventh consecutive victory Monday night, trimming Pittsburgh 4-2 behind the hitting of Mike Ryan and Johnny Briggs. Allen vanished into the night a week ago at New York and the Phils, beset by injuries before his disappearance, lost both ends of a doubleheader to the Mets. They haven't been beaten since then.

While Skinner waited in vain for a phone call from Allen Monday, the Phils placed outfielder Johnny Callison, their only other stand-out, on the 21-day disabled list with a severe pulled groin muscle.

Then they struggled past the Pirates as Ryan clubbed a two-run homer, Briggs delivered a pair of key singles and reliever John Booser pitched out of a bases-loaded bind in the ninth inning, saving the victory for left-hander Woody Fryman.

Elsewhere, Atlanta's Phil Niekro became the majors' first 13-game winner with a 9-4 nod over Cincinnati; Los Angeleshipped Houston 7-1 on Claude Osteen's four-hitter; New York buried St. Louis 10-2 on a three-hitter by Jim McAndrew; Montreal upended the Chicago Cubs

5-2 and San Francisco bounced San Diego 6-1.

The Phillies staked former Pirate Fryman to a 4-0 lead with the help of Ryan's ninth homer, a fourth inning shot that followed Larry Hsieh's triple. The Pirates got on run back in the seventh, then chased Fryman with four hits in the ninth. But Booser came on and retired pinch hitter Willie Stargell on a pop to second for the last out.

Briggs singled across an unearned run in the first and singled, stole second and scored on Rick Joseph's single in the sixth.

Niekro, 13-5, survived 11 Cincinnati hits and four wild pitches—one short of the major league record—as the Braves hung one-half game behind first place Los Angeles in the West Division race.

Hank Aaron drilled his 21st homer, a three-run shot that keyed Atlanta's six-run third inning explosion. Niekro opened the third with a single and doubled home two runs in the fifth.

Osteen, 10-6, retired the first 14 Astros he faced and held them hitless until the seventh inning, when a walk and one-out singles by Doug Rader and Marty Martinez ruined his shutout bid. Wes Parker doubled home the second of two first inning runs and singled to ignite another two-run rally in the third.

McAndrew, 2-2, weathered bases-empty homers by Joe Torre and Dal Maxvill after the Mets struck for six first innings runs—the last three on Jerry Grote's first homer of the season. Art Shamsky also homered for New York as the sinking Cardinals dropped their fourth straight.

Coco Laboy poked two singles, driving in three runs, and Montreal stopped the Cubs behind right-hander Howie Reed. The loss cut Chicago's East Division lead over second place New York to seven games.

Mike McCormick scattered seven hits and Willie Mays, Willie McCovey and Ron Hunt knocked in two runs apiece, leading the Giants past the Padres, who have lost three games in a row, 14 of their last 15 and 22 of 25 since June 6.

Bengals Trade Tom Smiley, Get Eric Crabtree

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Bengals of the American Football League traded fullback Tom Smiley to the Denver Broncos Monday for wide receiver Eric Crabtree.

Bengals general manager and coach Paul Brown said the trade was made in an effort to bolster Cincinnati's pass receiving corps.

Crabtree, who played his college football at Pittsburgh, has been with the Broncos three years. Last fall he led the team's pass receivers with 35 receptions for 631 yards and five touchdowns. He stands 5-11 and weighs 182.

Smiley was drafted by the Bengals last year from Lamar Tech. He is 6-1 and weighs 225 pounds and gained 146 yards in 63 ball carrying attempts in 1968.

Weatherman Wins Over Washington

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Cleveland got its first victory over the Washington Senators Monday night, but the victory belonged to the weatherman, not the Cleveland Indians.

The two teams were rained out Monday, setting up a two-night doubleheader tonight at Municipal Stadium with the Indians trying to avenge six straight early season losses to Ted Williams' Senators.

The rainout forces the Indians to play their fifth doubleheader since June 20, making the advantage of the day of relaxation questionable.

California Demos 'Break' State

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California began a new fiscal year without a budget today and Gov. Ronald Reagan flatly refused to accept an emergency bill to keep the state running for 30 days.

As a result, the nation's most populous state was plunged into unprecedented fiscal chaos. Salaries for state employees were cut off and Reagan asked them to work for free. State officials no longer had authority to pay wages or bills.

The Republican governor, at a 2 a.m. news conference, blamed Assembly Democrats led by As-

Group . . .

About $500,000 has been tentatively earmarked to pay for the panel's staff, although the members will serve without pay.

Fitzhugh said he has no illusions and no preconceived ideas on what should or shouldn't be probed in the course of the review.

The first thing on the panel's agenda, he said, will be to find out "how we are going to attack, to take hold of this tremendous problem."

The group's four-point charter as drawn up by Laird calls for it to study, report and make recommendations on:

—The organization and management of the Department of Defense, including the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Defense agencies and the military services... with emphasis on the responsiveness to the requirements of the President and the secretary of defense.

—Defense research, including mission goals, costs and relationships with science and industry.

—Defense procurement policies and practices, particularly as they relate to costs, time and quality.

—And other matters may be submitted to the panel in the coming months.

Heart Transplant Patient Nears Year As New Man

By EARLEEN FISHER Associated Press Writer INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A 44-year-old Indianapolis school teacher with a 17-year-old heart says he feels like "nothing's ever been changed."

America's longest surviving heart transplant recipient, Louis B. Russell Jr., is paneling his basement walls, bicycles regularly with his children, and recently climbed up on the roof of his two-story home for a repair job.

A year ago, he says, he was in "bad, bad shape."

That was before he entered the hospital at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond where on Aug. 24, 1968, he became the world's 34th heart transplant patient.

Russell resumed teaching industrial arts this spring. He speaks before local clubs and statewide meetings in Indianapolis. He has made dozens of talks since last January and is booked through next February.

Russell said his checkup this month is an exploratory operation to see what condition the heart is in.

After being considered for the transplant last year, Russell talked with his wife and four children.

He decided that "if I didn't survive, I'd be asleep. I wouldn't know anything about it. And if I did or didn't survive, look at the millions of people we would have helped. It was a chance for me and a chance for them. I knew they didn't do this unless you're dying."

Russell added: "I am a Christian. I believe the doctors had a lot to do with this, but I believe God had a lot to do with it, too."

Accord Sought On Lake Drilling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Lawmakers from four Lake Erie states agreed Monday to seek curtailment of off-shore drilling plans until the states can agree on a common policy for handling the situation.

Ohio House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess said the working agreement was adopted at a meeting in Ashtabula between legislators representing Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan and New York.

He said the four states will attempt to seek a common ground of agreement on off-shore oil and gas drilling rather than an interstate compact that would involve the federal government.

out a budget most state spending would stop.

Unruh, who is expected to challenge Reagan in the 1970 governorship election, said legislative lawyers told him the legislature could easily pay back salaries. He predicted a settlement within two weeks and said, "There will be no fiscal chaos."

First, the Democrats refused to support a $6.37 billion budget. It failed on a 40-33 vote.

Then Unruh and Republican Assemblyman Frank Lanterman offered a $1.6 billion spending bill to finance most state operations for one month and give a year's money to certain local programs that require long-range funding.

It cleared the Assembly 54-14, but got delayed in the Senate in a maze of interhouse rivalry and partisanship.

Privately, Democrats consider the fight crucial for their hopes of winning control of the legislature and defeating Reagan in 1970.

Also involved in the dispute is a tax reform measure. Unruh says the one proposed by Regan fails to plug "tax loopholes" that favor major oil companies.

The Democrats are pressing to put on the June 1970 ballot an early version of a Reagan tax reform bill—one they believe would hurt Reagan politically. Reagan has submitted another plan.

The Democrats also say their plea for more school aid will count in their favor in next year's election.
